Shabbat Morning Service ~ 9:00 am

From The Rabbi's Study...

We Are Counting On You

One evening this past month I walked into our minyan. There was an elderly man with his daughter who sat in the back quietly and seemed somewhat uncomfortable. I quickly noticed that he was wearing a black keriah ribbon, the torn ribbon that is worn during shiva, the seven day period of mourning after the death of an immediate family member. I was sure that he had come in to say the Mourner's Kaddish, and was glad that we just had a minyan of ten Jews required for him to do so. When I spoke with him after the service I learned that he had suddenly and shockingly lost his mother and had used our cemetery for the burial. And after the funeral he had nowhere to go. He was not a member of Torat El. He did not seem to be affiliated with the Jewish community in any way. He had no community to go to for support during shiva. Thankfully, he found us and he came to pray and seek comfort in a Jewish community. I am hopeful that we were able to bring him and his college age daughter a small amount of comfort during this difficult period in their lives.

But here's the thing. I remember leaving thinking to myself: "Thank goodness we had a minyan!" I have written an article about minyan before, but I wanted to do so again because there have been a number of times in recent months that we have not had a minyan. And unfortunately, there have been people who have not been able to say Kaddish. We are so blessed to have the regular minyanaires that faithfully come every day, sometimes twice a day, to pray together as a community and to support people who are saying Kaddish. We are blessed to have people making calls to get a minyan. But without your support, at the rate we are going there will indeed come a day when Torat El is no longer able to sustain a minyan twice a day.

All of us are busy and there are all sorts of reasons that we can each think of for not showing up. The time does not work for us. We have to be home to help with our children. Our favorite class at the gym meets at the exact same time. It is too cold outside—let someone else drive to minyan. Each of these reasons is legitimate. But helping to make a minyan is not about any one of us individually. It is about all of us collectively.

I know that everyone who comes to the minyan, even infrequently, is glad that it exists. They are glad that a group of people is making sure that it happens. The trouble is, we cannot always rely on someone else. If having a minyan is really important to us, we actually have to do something concrete to help support it. So I am asking you: Is minyan important to you as a value? And if so, we need your help.

We often send out letters inviting people to come for a yahrtzeit and also send weekly phone messages to small groups of you and make personal phone calls in order to ensure that we have a minyan. If you get a letter or a phone call, please try to come to minyan.

Setting aside some quiet time to pray, slowing down for a few minutes to collect your thoughts, appreciate all that you have in life, and support friends and strangers in need of comfort may actually change your life.

Our morning minyan takes about 45 minutes, and our evening minyan takes about 30 minutes in the spring/summer and 20 minutes in the fall/winter. So please consider the following: Can you come once a week? Can you come once a month? Can you come three times this year? Each of us has to make a personal decision based on our own schedules and availability. Regardless of how often you can make this happen, I hope each one of you will be willing to make a personal commitment.

We simply cannot do this without you. This is your community. This is your minyan. And it will continue to exist as long as we work together to make it happen. Author Patti Mosovitz teaches that "One rabbi cannot make a minyan, but ten shoemakers can." Showing up is something that all of us can do. So look at your calendars, bring your family, pick a date, and please join us.

Monday-Friday 8:00 am, and 7:00 pm.

Sunday, 8:30 am.

Friday nights 6:30 pm, 8:00 pm
(second Friday of the month).

Shabbat morning 9:00 am.

We are looking forward to praying with you!

CTE Minyan Needs Your Help

Our minyanaires are a small group of dedicated individuals who attend minyan services to be there for all of us. NOW is OUR turn to show we care! Please mark your calendar to be sure you attend one of the minyan services this month.

Thank you!

Torat El Youth Groups WANT YOU to get involved!

We have started planning for our 2012-2013/5773 year, and we can't wait to include you and your ideas!

Pre-Kadima--grades 4-5

Kadima--grades 6-8

USY--grades 9-12

For more information and to get involved, contact Jane-Rachel Schonbrun, schonbrun63@mac.com, 732-695-6234

Thank You

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the board and everyone who was involved with giving me the lovely gift for my services as Youth Advisor. The honey jar made by Nissan will always hold a special place on my table and will remind me of the sweet memories I experienced serving in the Youth Advisor position for the last 5 years.

The unexpected announcement at the graduation took me by such a surprise that I was dumbstruck and was unable to publicly thank those who, without their help and support, I could not have done the job I did. I would like to go on record to thank you, Pam for your continued help and support always, Joanne, Vickie and Jacob for all their help and most of all to Steve and Russell. Steve, who always delivered the pizza hot and on time. He was always a constant pillar of support to me no matter how much I moaned and groaned when I would have to stay out till 2:00 in the morning chaperoning the dances. And to Russell, who for 4 years was not only a volunteer but a mentor to the Pre Kadima and Kadima groups. He spoke their language and always made any activity fun because he was there. I am thankful to Jane-Rachel for filling the position as she will take the Youth Advisor Position to much greater possibilities than I could ever have imagined with the support of the Rabbi and the Temple as a whole. Lastly, I would like to thank the children who I have had the privilege of advising throughout my time. The USY Organization as a whole is very near and dear to my heart as it has made such a difference in my life as well as my children's. I feel I had a chance to make a difference in the lives of every child who was introduced to this organization. You know what they say, you effect one life you effect the world.

Again thank you and it was a privilege as well as the end of a milestone in my life.

Abby Scheer

Men's Club News

GOLF, GOLF, GOLF...Now that we have your attention....Do you want to plan the 2013 (yes 2013) Men's Club Golf Outing? We are looking for a good man to coordinate next year's Golf Outing! Are you organized, have experience running an outing, have contacts who might be interested in a golf outing, or have the time and inclination to get involved? If so this job may be for you. We are looking to hire an individual to help put together our annual Golf Outing. Please inquire at robeinhorn@gmail.com.

If you would like to get involved with the CTE Men's Club, come and attend a board meeting on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 7:30 PM. We'd love to have your input.
