Kiddush Fund

Kiddush lunch plays a central role in bringing our community together every Shabbat. It is obviously an opportunity to eat a weekly meal together but it goes way beyond that. It is also a chance to visit together; to get to know one another in a relaxed, social setting.

A special fund has been created at Torat El. The Kiddush Fund is now open for business! Please consider contributing to this fund whenever you have someone or something to commemorate. Consider hosting a Kiddush lunch at Torat El when you have a Simcha to celebrate, and celebrate it with all of us. It is about much more than the herring and bagels!

To make a donation to the Kiddush Fund please call the temple office at 732-531-4410. To inquire about sponsoring a Kiddush please call Pam, also at 732-531-4410 or email to pamc@torat-el.org.

Communications Changes for the Coming Year

As of July 1st our "Voice of the Shore" bulletin will be printed on a quarterly basis. You will receive bulletins in July, October, January and April. Your monthly yellow books, highlighting CTE's upcoming events will include the monthly service announcements and monthly calendar that are currently found in the bulletin. Rabbi's, President's and Religious School columns, general donations and yahrzeit donations will remain in the bulletin. It is our hope that the new "Voice of the Shore" will bring you more articles, community information and special features. If you are interested in writing about something in particular please let me know, we'd love to get you involved! I will continue to send my weekly emails of upcoming events and Rabbi will continue his Tuesday Morning Torah emails. If you are not on our email list let me know (pamc@torat-el.org) and I'll get you on there! Important synagogue related messages will continue to be sent via phone calls for those who don't have email access. If you have any questions please feel free to call me at 732-531-4410.

Thank you,

Pam

From The Rabbi's Study...

Sharing Our Stories

One of my favorite parts of being a rabbi is that I am afforded the opportunity to learn new things on a daily basis. In addition to the more obvious learning that is centered around teaching Jewish texts, values, practices and beliefs, I am continually reading and exploring synagogue life across the country in search for programs, ideas and "best practices" to share with our congregation. A little over a year ago, I learned about a program that was taking place at a small Conservative synagogue in Baltimore. The program was both simple and very powerful, involving the sharing of personal life stories between congregants in the hopes of creating a more close knit and connected synagogue community.

Why can't we do this at our Synagogue? I thought to myself. And that is how it all started. Looking out at our congregation each Shabbat morning I wondered how many of our "Shabbat regulars" who sit next to each other week in and week out actually "know" each other on a more personal level. This question led me to wonder how many people in our broader synagogue community actually "know" their fellow members who are beyond their own circle of friends. More specifically, in the context of our synagogue, how many of us know the Jewish beliefs, thoughts, and stories of our fellow community members. My sense is that while there may be varying answers to this question, most of us do not create the time to "hear" one another's Jewish stories, something that is critical to building closer, more intimate relationships with other members in our synagogue family.

Since our community loves to gather for food, I thought that Shabbat lunch was a logical place to start. This past year we have started hosting a regular lunch twice monthly following Shabbat morning services. Once a month, one of these lunches is dedicated to the "My People's Torah" program where I have invited members to share a bit about their "Jewish Journeys" with one another in the hopes of building upon existing relationships and creating new ones. I think it is safe to say that the results have been amazing and the stories have been nothing short of inspirational.

The rabbis teach that: when three people dine at a table and exchange words of Torah, they are considered as having eaten at God's table. (Sayings of our Sages, Pirkei Avot 3:4). Every month, at some point during the presentations, I have felt God's presence in the room. Our members have shared their thoughts on God, reflected on precious Jewish moments in their lives, discussed their favorite Jewish traditions and values, talked about the biggest Jewish influences of their lives, and focused on the most important Jewish values that they want to pass on to the next generation. We have heard from some who grew up Jewish, and some who are Jews by choice; from members who believe strongly in God, and from those who are not sure what they think about God; from people who have been Jewishly connected for much of their life, and from people who began exploring Judaism later in life. Each story has been compelling, powerful, and meaningful.

We have laughed together, cried together, and listened with rapt attention to the stories of those who we thought we knew, but now suddenly know on a whole new level. We have gained a deeper appreciation for this community that is made up of such diverse individuals, from such different backgrounds, who are nevertheless part of the same synagogue family. Speaking personally, listening to these stories each month has been one of the highlights of my year.

The "My People's Torah" program fits perfectly with our mission statement that:

We are a community building relationships with God, Judaism, and each other; through prayer, study, discussion, and action; guided by Torah, our traditions, those who came before us and our vision for the future.

And that is why it is something that we will continue in the coming years.

Those who know me by now know where this is going -- right? Come and join us! We would love to hear your story, and have you join in the listening to others. Whether you are a Shabbat "regular" or you come once a year- you are a part of our family and we would love to learn more about you and your Jewish journey thus far. All you have to do is call (732) 531-4410, or send me an e-mail (rabbi@torat-el.org) and together we can find a date that works for you and your family. I have collected over a dozen stories thus far and hope to make a book celebrating our community's stories in the years to come. We would love to add your story to the collection!

President's Message

Shalom. I am very honored to start my term as President of our Congregation. For the past 21 years Michele and I have lived in Wayside where we have raised our three children -- now young adults soon to be spread out in college and grad school across the country. I was raised in Northern New Jersey (West Orange), graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and then from Rutgers School of Law in Newark. For over 25 years, I have been in private practice focusing on environmental law and I am currently chair of the Environmental Practice Group of Sills, Cummis & Gross splitting my time between our offices in Newark, Princeton and New York City.

Like some of my generation of American Jews, my connection with Judaism growing up was not from synagogue worship or from religious school. Rather, my ties to Judaism were formulated through my experiences with my peers in our Temple's Young Group, Young Judea. Here in Ocean, our family's involvement with our Congregation gradually increased as our children were enrolled in the Religious School and continued through and after their respective Bar and Bat Mitzvahs. Before becoming a member of the Executive Board, I was a Board of Trustees member for ten years, president of the Men's Club, Ritual Committee chair among many other lay leadership roles.

It is exciting to start my term as President with our new Strategic Plan in place as we work to implement the changes that will help our Congregation move forward. Change can be exciting and frightening at the same time as we gain some new and realize we will miss some of the old. Random change without direction can be upsetting. Purposeful change to advance toward a goal can be invigorating.

Soon after our unification was completed and Rabbi Schonbrun joined us, our first President, Dr. Alan Stern, tasked our Strategic Planning Committee to work with our members and our staff to create a plan for our future. The Strategic Planning Committee fostered the identification of our Congregation's Statement of Values, our Vision Statement and our Mission Statement - "We are a Community Building Relationships".

After more than two years of work and scores of meetings, retreats, and focus groups, the Strategic Plan is now final. The Strategic Plan brings together our Congregation's values and vision to establish specific goals to address our current and anticipated needs. With the Strategic Plan now in place we are moving toward implementing our first goals. Our Congregation's plans for our future are finally taking form and seeing their first fruits.

Our plan involves changes, some smaller and some larger. In the months ahead, these changes will be refined and then implemented. Our Congregation's leadership and staff are dedicated to building on the excitement progress creates while working to reduce the fears that come with change. Together we will be welcoming the new and incorporating the best of the old so we never lose sight of our traditions and heritage as we move forward.

Change based on study and thoughtful analysis with respect for our past and our values is a hallmark of Conservative Judaism and fitting for our Congregation - our Kehillah Kedusha (our Holy Community). Our Strategic Plan is online on our website, www.torat-el.org. Study our plan, increase your involvement, and take the opportunity to be an active part of a Congregation working to bring our Mission Statement to fruition -- "We are a Community Building Relationships".

Last, but not least, I would be remiss if I did not offer a hearty Yasher Koach and a personal thank you to everyone moving on from their roles on our Board. I step in with a firm foundation established by those who served before me, particularly Alan Stern and Gary Zimmerman, and with a great team of lay leaders, clergy and staff with whom to work. I look forward to building our relationships as we go forward.

Andrew Robins

1st Sunday of Religious School – Meet and Greet

HAVE A TERRIFIC SUMMER!

Yasher Koach to our B'nai Mitzvah!

Hi - my name is Jacob Guss. I am a seventh grader at The Ranney School. I live in Wayside with my parents, Lisa and Howard, and my older sister, Sarah. My favorite subject at school is math. I love to play tennis and soccer as well as video games.

I have been a Boy Scout since first grade and I am presently a Star Scout. My goal is to become an Eagle Scout, like my father and three cousins. My favorite scout activities are archery and spending time with my fellow scouts around the camp fire. I am happy that many of my Hebrew school friends are my closest friends and live in my neighborhood!

My mitzvah project includes helping several community organizations that help those in need. First, I conducted two separate food drives, one for the local food bank and one for Lunchbreak. Also, I volunteered at the Salvation Army helping to restock their food pantry. After "Superstorm Sandy", I helped at the Red Cross cleaning up bunks used at an emergency shelter. To help OccupySandy.org, I went door to door having residents of Keansburg fill out surveys to request help to rebuild their homes. It was amazing to see how hard hit families were, even two months after the storm. Most of the homes we went to were so heavily damaged that no one could live there. Earlier in the year, I worked at the Jewish Family and Children's Service making and delivering food packages for Thanksgiving. Volunteering has helped me to understand how special my life is and how grateful I should be. I will continue to help those in need and make a difference in the world. By doing so, I am hoping to make my "mitzvah" bigger than my "bar"!

I am looking forward to becoming a Bar Mitzvah on June 22!

Hi- my name is Juliana Berkowitz. I am a seventh grader at Ocean Township Intermediate School. I live in Wayside with my parents, Susan and Steve, and my older sister, Ariel. I love to skate, read, watch movies with my family, and travel. I will be going to Israel for the first time after my Bat Mitzvah. For my mitzvah project, I helped out with the Relay for Life event, sponsored by the American Cancer Society. The Luminaria Ceremony, part of the Relay for Life event, takes place after dark, so we can remember people we have lost to cancer, honor people who have fought cancer in the past, and support those whose fight continues. Candles are lit inside of personalized bags and are placed around the Relay track as glowing tributes to those who've been affected by cancer. I will be volunteering at the June 1, 2013 event being held at the Ocean Township Intermediate School that I attend. I will be helping with activities and services like the Luminaria service, which honors those who have passed away due to cancer. I also hope to be helping with the Survivors Dinner. Any help that I can give will be done wholeheartedly. I am looking forward to becoming a Bat Mitzvah on June 15 and sharing my simcha with family and friends.
