PHOTOGRAPHY FOR A LIFETIME®

Join us as we CONNECT
our families

Please be a part of our new family directory program - we need YOU to make our new family album complete!

Let's put names with faces. We have chosen to partner with Lifetouch for professional photography that will connect our members and tell our story.

Convenient

Lifetouch will photograph at CTE.

In your one-hour session you will:

- ◆ Check-in
- ◆ Be professionally photographed
- ◆ Immediately view your portraits
- ◆ Have an opportunity to purchase additional portraits

Each family will receive a complimentary 8x10 portrait and directory for participating

Visit the CTE website (www.torat-el.org) and click on the link to make your appointment online or call Sheryl Kaplan at 732-229-4494.

From The Rabbi's Study...

What Connects The Jewish People In The 21st Century?

A Seder Conversation

From the very beginning, it has been clear that Jews are both a people, as well as followers of a religion. This idea of being a Jewish people is rooted in the story of Passover. It was Pharaoh who coined the phrase am bnei yisrael, "the Israelite People" to describe us in the beginning of Exodus (Exodus 1:9). And one of the most famous lines in the narrative of the Exodus is Moses' repeated demand to Pharaoh: "Let My People Go." Every year we, as a people, are to gather together in our communities and celebrate the Festival of Passover, re-telling the story of how our people came to be. But what exactly does it mean to be a people as well as a religion?

This is a question that underlies much of what is happening in the American Jewish community today. Previous generations of Jews have not generally had to think so much about this question. For centuries many Jews across the world felt very much a part of a people who were very connected to other Jews, both in their community and across the world. The past few generations of Jews around the world have done amazing things for the Jewish people such as establishing the State of Israel, ensuring that Holocaust education and awareness is everywhere you look, freeing most of the Jews around the world, and ridding much of the Western World of anti-Semitism (just to name a few!). Yet all of this success comes with a great challenge as many of the Jews in North America today do not feel that same sense of urgency connecting them to their fellow Jews across the world.

In recent history, as some of the examples above demonstrate, we have seen that our sense of peoplehood is often connected to crisis. But how can we foster a sense of peoplehood that is not solely linked to crisis? It is true that there are certainly crises that face the Jewish people. Israel continues to face existential threats and there is, unfortunately, still much anti-Semitism in our world. Nevertheless, for many of the younger generation of Jews in North America today, it seems that these issues alone are not enough to make them feel that deep sense of connection to the Jewish people that their parents and grandparents have felt. And if all of this were not enough, add to these challenges the notion that we are living in a country that prides itself on individualism. This is particularly true for our younger generation of Jews who often value their individual Jewish experience, but struggle with the importance of belonging to a local, national, and international Jewish community.

There are no simple answers to these challenges, but as Passover is a holiday that centers around peoplehood, and places a supreme value on asking questions, I invite you to share your thoughts on this topic, across the generations, at your Passover table.

1. Why does being connected to a people matter in the first place?
 2. What does it mean to you to say that you are a part of the Jewish people?
 3. When in your life have you most felt a part of the Jewish people?
 4. Does being a part of a people mean that one Jew has a claim on another?
 5. Does being a part of a people mean that one Jew is responsible for another?
 6. Who do you include when you think of the Jewish people and who do you exclude. Explain.
 7. What connection, if any, do you have with Jews living in other states in North America? With Jews living in Israel? Does this connection change if their outlook on Judaism is vastly different than yours? Explain.
- Do you believe that there are a set of values that all Jews in North America could agree upon?

May this dialogue help each of us continue to discover what it means to be a part of this amazing people, and may our identity as a people which, began in Egypt, continue to grow stronger for generations to come. Hag Kasher V'Sameach,

Have a wonderful Passover!

7th GRADE MITZVAH FIELD TRIP TO ASSOCIATED HUMANE SOCIETY

On Monday January 28, the 7th Grade students, along with their teacher, Rachel Bronstein, visited the Associated Humane Society for an educational tour of their facility. During the tour, the Chief Animal Control Officer and Shelter Manager educated us on what they do for animals, and ways in which we can support their efforts. A few weeks before the visit, the facility manager provided us with a 'Wish List' of items, many of which the 7th graders donated on the day of the visit. We also donated many items that Peggy Gaber-Casey and her 1st Grade class had been collecting for animals as part of their Mitzvah theme for the year.

The Mitzvah Field Trip to the Associated Human Society was chosen by the 7th Graders as their first monthly Mitzvah Field Trip of 2013.

6th GRADE STUDENTS LEAD CONGREGATION IN PRAYER!

On Feb. 1, 2013, the 6th Grade students led Congregation Torat El in Friday Night Services. The students – Jayda Candelaria, Amanda DiBenedetto, Danielle Horowitz, Jessica Weinstein, and Carly Solomon – did an outstanding job leading the Congregation in Prayer. Congratulations to the students, to 6th Grade teacher Chani England, and to all of the other teachers for creating and maintaining a foundation that led to this meaningful experience.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL STUDENTS AND USY TAKE A TRIP TO NEW YORK CITY!

On Feb. 10, 2013, the students in Grades 7-12 and Ocean USY collaborated for a very special experience! The group took a Charter bus into New York City to visit and tour the Museum of Tolerance in New York. Afterward, we went to the Nederlander Theatre to see the show 'Newsies'. Following the show, we had a delicious dinner at Ben's Kosher Deli in New York City. A FABULOUS time was had by all participants!

PURIM AT CONGREGATION TORAT EL WAS AMAZING!

The Religious School students participated in the Purim Megillah – and they were unbelievable! The students, along with Rabbi Schonbrun and Cantor Siegel, told the story of Purim by spoofing contemporary songs such as 'Call Me Maybe' (6th Grade), 'Home' (5th Grade), and 'Gangnam Style' (7th Grade), as well as such old favorites as 'Oh, Suzannah' (1st and 2nd Grades), 'It's a Small World' (3rd Grade), 'If You're Happy and You Know It' (Ganon), and 'Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious' (4th Grade). Special thanks to Randi Kervick, the Hebrew High students, Rachel Bronstein, and Rabbi Schonbrun who spent a considerable amount of time writing many of the spoofs. A great time was had by all!

Yasher Koach to our Bar Mitzvah!

Hi. My name is David Neuwirth and I live in Brielle with my Mom, Dad, older sister Emma, and my Bubbe. I am in 7th grade and attend Oak Hill Academy in Lincroft. On March 16, 2013, I will become a Bar Mitzvah.

For my mitzvah project, I did a variety of community service projects. First, I volunteered at the Boys and Girls Club of Red Bank. At the club, I helped first and second graders with their homework and played games with them. My other mitzvah projects included cleaning up the Manasquan Beach, walking a 5K for the Gift of Life organization which raises money and awareness for bone marrow donations, and participating in the Crop Walk in Red Bank. The Crop Walk raises money and food to fight hunger in New Jersey. All of these experiences have made me realize how fortunate I am for all the things I have in my life. I have a great family, a nice home where I always have enough food to eat and clothes to keep warm, and good health.

Exploring The History And Structure Of The Haggadah

Did you know that the Haggadah can be broken up into four separate parts and that this work includes four different ways of re-telling the Exodus from Egypt? The Haggadah includes four children, four questions, and at least four cups of wine - which is why this four part class is very appropriate!

Please join Rabbi Schonbrun and take a closer look at the Haggadah, its contents, structure and history. Explore a different aspect of the Haggadah in each class and discuss how the development and history of the Haggadah might relate to our own Seder experience today.

Please bring your friends!

We welcome all levels of learning and knowledge and only ask that you bring at least four good questions!

Siyyum Bechorim

Calling All First Born (Men and Women) ~ Monday, March 25th at 8:00am

According to Jewish tradition, the first born son of a mother or father is required to fast on the day before Passover as an expression of thanks for the deliverance of the first born Israelites who were spared from the Tenth plague. One midrash teaches that both women and men were affected by this plague, and the Shulchan Arukh offers an opinion that women who are first born should fast as well. It is in that spirit that we also encourage first born females to join us for our siyyum festivities. However, individuals who are obligated to fast are exempt from fasting if they have the opportunity to participate in a seudat mitzvah, a festive meal that follows the performance of certain mitzvot. Therefore, it has become customary for synagogues, on the day before Passover, to make a siyyum, a public completion of a unit of study, which is followed by a seudat mitzvah, thus exempting the first born participants from their obligation to fast. The siyyum will be preceded by the morning minyan and followed by a feast with lots of delicious chametz. Study and feast is held in memory of Esther and Ed Deitelbaum and is sponsored by their family. All are welcome to join us even if you are not a first born.

For planning purposes, kindly RSVP to the temple office by Thursday, March 21st. 732-531-4410

Sale of Chametz

During the week of Pesach, it is forbidden for any Jew to own chametz. To avoid the unnecessary financial hardship that could result from requiring Jews to dispose of all items that are chametz, it is tradition to sell items of chametz to non-Jews for the week of Pesach. If you would like to sell your chametz to insure that you abide by the Jewish law of not owning any chametz during the week of Pesach, please fill out the form below and return it to the Temple on or before end of day Friday, March 22nd.

Dear Rabbi Schonbrun,

I/we _____ (name) would like to appoint you as my/our agent to sell all items of chametz that will be in my/our possession at: _____. This sale will be effective at 10:30am on Monday, March 25th.

When the Ceremonial Police Band of Alexandria, Egypt, journeys to a gig in Israel, they can hardly anticipate getting stuck in a rut. But upon arrival at the Israeli airport, their hosts and transportation fail to show. Trapped in a middle-of-nowhere desert town, the group members try to figure out what to do and where to go. In desperation, two of the musicians -- conductor Tawfiq and playboy Haled -- accept an invitation from sexy café owner Dina to bunk at her residence, and seemingly within no time, the unlikeliest of interracial (Israeli-Palestinian) romances begin to blossom - not only between Tawfiq and Dina, but between Haled and local wallflower Papi, whose night together at a roller disco turns into a veritable comedy of errors. Meanwhile, the remainder of the band members room with local resident Itzik's family, which produces overwhelming conflict and innumerable tensions. As the days roll on, the co-mingling of Egyptian bandmembers and Israeli residents imparts each individual with insights into his cultural identity and that of the others.

Kiddush Fund

Kiddush lunch plays a central role in bringing our community together every Shabbat. It is obviously an opportunity to eat a weekly meal together but it goes way beyond that. It is also a chance to visit together; to get to know one another in a relaxed, social setting.

Recently a special fund was created at Torat El. The Kiddush Fund is now open for business! Please consider contributing to this fund whenever you have someone or something to commemorate. Consider hosting a Kiddush lunch at Torat El when you have a Simcha to celebrate, and celebrate it with all of us. It is about much more than the herring and bagels!

To make a donation to the Kiddush Fund please call the temple office at 732-531-4410. To inquire about sponsoring a Kiddush please call Pam, also at 732-531-4410 or pamc@torat-el.org.

Thank You!

Thank you to the following families for sponsoring a Kiddush Luncheon:

Jodi and Arthur Vassen in honor of their daughter Emma becoming a Bat Mitzvah

Judy and Rick Rosner in honor of their son Josh becoming a Bar Mitzvah

Joel and Madeline Schulman in honor of Joel's birthday and the 58th anniversary of his becoming a Bar Mitzvah
