From The Rabbi's Study...

Making Revelation Count

Starting on the second night of Passover, we begin the somewhat strange practice of counting the Omer. The historical connection to the Omer is agricultural. In Israel the spring harvest begins during the Passover season, and in the biblical period people would bring their new crop to Jerusalem during this time of year to be eaten as a sign of appreciation and thanksgiving for God's beneficence. The Omer, a measurement of grain, represents a portion of the crop that was brought daily during the forty-nine days between Passover and Shavuot.

So why are we still counting? Why do we commemorate this seemingly out-of-date ritual?

Over the years, the counting of the Omer took on additional significance. Beyond just being a symbol of our thanksgiving for God's goodness when it came to the harvest, counting the Omer became a spiritual tool for helping us connect to God and Torah.

Maimonides taught that we count the days between Pesach and Shavuot because we are anxiously awaiting the experience of "receiving Torah," commemorated on the holiday of Shavuot.

As you are reading this article, we are in the middle of our counting towards this "revelation." But if the counting of the Omer is directly tied to our anticipation of receiving Torah, then we must ask ourselves just how we "receive Torah" today. This is a multi-faceted and challenging question, but at its core it is really the central question about the ways in which we bring Jewish learning into our lives.

Torah literally means "instruction." As we count forward, eagerly anticipating our arrival at Sinai, let us make sure we count with a purpose: the purpose of becoming more educated as Jews. Education is the essence of Torah. Jewish learning lies at the core of our values, our traditions, and our very survival. As we count forward towards Shavuot, let us each ask ourselves: How am I doing when it comes to my Jewish learning? What are some areas where I would like to learn more, and what am I going to do about it? And then let us begin the daunting practice of delving in to Jewish text, in the broadest sense of the word. Let us prepare to re-dedicate ourselves to "Torah," to Jewish learning.

Here are just a few practical suggestions for how to do this:

1. Sign up for an adult education class at the Synagogue or in the community.
2. Sign up for a Jewish course on-line. The Jewish Theological Seminary is one institution that offers some fabulous courses taught by Seminary scholars. (www.jtsa.edu) A list of additional resources can be found in the Rabbi's corner of our website (<http://torat-el.org/rabbis-corner/rabbi-schonbruns-favorite-websites/>).
3. Download a Jewish "app" onto your smart phone to study when you are commuting and encourage your children and grandchildren to do the same for their iphone, ipad, etc... For an interesting article with suggestions, check out: http://www.thejewishweek.com/blogs/jewish_techs/what_are_top_jewish_apps
4. Go to the bookstore and buy a Jewish book that looks interesting to you, bring it to the beach this summer, and begin discussing it with family and friends.
5. Feel free to visit our library and check out some of our wonderful resources through our online library catalog.
6. Come to Shabbat services and engage in our weekly Torah learning.

Write down a list of Jewish questions or topics that you have always wanted to learn about and think about how to begin studying one of these topics. As always, I am happy to help you get started with this journey. Feel free to call me or e-mail for any advice.

There is no question that this is a tall order. A commitment to Jewish learning, a commitment to receiving Torah in our lives, takes much dedication and can be an endless pursuit. But just as we take the counting of the Omer one day at a time, so too must we remember that the key to successful Jewish learning lies in our ability to take things one lesson at a time.

Our first collective encounter with God happened at Sinai. When we link our count toward Sinai with a commitment to re-dedicate ourselves to Jewish learning, we re-connect with God, by inviting God into our lives and into the world around us. As Dr. Louis Finkelstein (former Chancellor of JTS) once said: "When I pray, I talk to God, and when I study, God talks to me." As we prepare to celebrate Shavuot and receive the Torah, let us avoid merely counting each day, and work to ensure that we make each day count. The Torah is waiting. God is waiting. In the words of Hillel the Sage: "Go and Learn."

Yasher Koach to our Bar Mitzvah

Hi, my name is Jared Chester. I live in Wayside and go to Ocean Township Intermediate School. I am an avid soccer player and have been the goal keeper for the Ocean Township Lightening team for 4 years. I have a cat Maggie that I got for my birthday last year to keep me company while my two brothers (Aaron and Daniel) are away at college. For my Bar Mitzvah project I organized a Marathon Relay Run with my Mom, Dad, Brother Aaron and his girlfriend Heather. We ran the race April 21st and collected over $700.00 for Special Olympics. I am so excited for my Bar Mitavah on May 19, 2012. I invite you to share and celebrate with me and my family.

Tikkun Leil Shavuot: Receiving our most important Text

Judaism invites us to interact with the texts, values, and wisdom of our tradition as frequently as many of us interact with the "texts" on our phones. As a "tree of life," the Torah is something that is meant to keep us rooted in all of our daily interactions: when we are at home, when we are away, when we lie down and when we rise up. Come and join us as we engage in this Tikkun Leil Shavuot evening of study, and explore some of the ways in which we can access the joy, meaning, and wisdom of Torah in our 21st century lives. As always bring your questions, (and your appetites.) Cheesecake and light refreshments will be served.

This program is open to the community—all are welcome!

Teachers will include:

Rabbi Aaron Schonbrun

Cantor Bruce Siegel

Rabbi Cy Stanway of Temple Beth Miriam

Rabbi David Levy from the Jewish Theological Seminary

Rabbi Rachel Ain from the Jewish Federations of North America

The Torah Rollers Have Arrived

At Congregation Torat El we are blessed with having 22 Torahs. Our most revered and holiest of possessions require the utmost in loving care and kindness in order to preserve their condition for use during our services. We regularly use 2 of our Torahs for Shabbat and Holiday services, exercising them by rolling them as we need them. The rolling of the Torah is needed to properly allow the parchment and ink to breathe and age properly. When a Torah is not rolled, the ink and parchment tend to deteriorate which can render a Torah being deemed unfit for use. We have started a Holy Rollers group of individuals that will be meeting periodically to roll our Torahs from end to end on a regular basis. Each meeting a different set of Torahs will be rolled. On Sunday, March, 10, 2012, 4 individuals rolled 3 Torahs. It is a process, while not easy, is very satisfying. When you are rolling a Torah you watch the text move. You start to recognize the "geography" of the Torah. The end of one book and the beginning of another book of the Torah is apparent. You see the offset text where the Song of the Sea appears. It is truly an uplifting experience to take part in this mitzvah of care. We are looking for people to participate in this mitzvah. If you have an hour to give to help out, please contact Joel Schulman at (732) 222-0929 or via e-mail at joschulman@comcast.net. As mentioned before, 3 Torahs were rolled on March 10 by Joel Schulman, Miles Cook, Norm Ginsberg and Neil Weitzenkorn. We thank these individuals for their efforts.

RAFFLE NEWS

After our initial success in our newly-merged Temple, Sisterhood is now preparing to launch another season of the Min Pincow Memorial Raffle. The first drawing is set for June 7, 2012. For those not familiar with this raffle, let us explain briefly:

We have 100 numbers available, with one drawing each month for ten months. Each monthly ticket costs $10.00. You may purchase ten tickets (one for each month) for $100, payable in one or two installments. The winner each month receives one-half of the proceeds from the number of tickets sold for that month. (This is a true 50-50.) NOTE: If we are successful in selling all 100 numbers, the winner will receive $500!

This raffle started many years ago at Temple Beth El's Sisterhood, and has been continued by Congregation Torat El's Sisterhood. It is named after Min Pincow, a dedicated TBE member who had originally conceived the idea for the raffle. Naturally, most ticket-holders will continue to keep their numbers. However, there are still several lucky numbers still available, and we invite one and all to participate.

To order your tickets, or if you have questions, please contact either
Gayle Ardakanian, 848-466-9800 or Phyllis Schwarz, 732-988-0928:

T'was The Night After Seder

T'was the night after Seder, and all through the house
Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.
The fish and the kugel, (oh my, what a taste)
After both of the seders, went straight to my waist.
When I got on the scale, I couldn't believe it!
The treadmill and bicycle wouldn't relieve it.
I remembered the marvelous meals I prepared;
The light airy matzah balls everyone shared.
The brisket, the turkey, the tzimmes so sweet;
Oy, let me recline and get off of my feet.
I know we made kiddish and recited each plague,
But right now I'm foggy, and my memory is vague.

So, don't give me matzoh, chopped liver or wine
I'll do my aerobics and never more dine.
I'm walking to temple, so what if it's far?
I'm not even thinking of taking the car.
With 10 lbs. to lose and 10 inches to shrink,
Eating a latka? Don't even think!
Macaroons when wrapped tightly, can so nicely freeze.
Pack the sponge cake and teglach away, if you please.
Out of sight, out of mind - by this oath I'll abide;
Bring me the boiled chicken with romaine on the side.
I'll keep on that program, to my diet adhere,
And let's all get together for Pesach next year!
