From The Rabbi's Study...

Don't Forget To Vote- It's A Mitzvah!

When I was growing up, our local voting station was in the garage of the house next door. I have fond memories of walking with my mother to Mrs. Sweeny's house each time there was an election. I especially liked getting a sticker to show everyone that my family had voted that day! But somehow this excitement about voting diminished as I grew older, and throughout my early voting years, I became somewhat apathetic about voting. It was not until my years in Rabbinical School that I began to realize the error of my ways, recognizing that as both Jews and Americans we have the responsibility and the privilege to take this opportunity seriously. That is why each of us must make the time to vote in the November 6th election.

While we might not normally think of voting as a Jewish issue, concern and involvement with our government is a long standing Jewish value. The Mishnah in Pirkei Avot, 3:3 teaches us to:

Pray for the welfare of the government, for were it not for fear of it, people would swallow each other alive.

In line with this Mishnah, on Shabbat it has become a tradition in our community to take a few moments to recite a Prayer for our Country based on the words of Rabbi Louis Ginzberg, one of the greatest Talmudists and legal minds of our movement and of Judaism in the 20th century. But praying for the welfare of our government is not enough.

As Jews, we must actively take part in allowing our voices to be heard when it comes to the formation of our government. Judaism places significant value on being an active member of the greater community. The sage Hillel put it best when he taught: "Do not separate yourself from the community (Avot 2:5)." As Jews, in all parts of our lives, we prioritize community, from when we eat, to when we pray, and when we study.

Being a part of the community does not mean losing our individuality. Even Hillel was aware that we should constantly strive to strike a balance between our individual concerns and the concerns of the greater community. This is made clear by another teaching from Pirkei Avot:

If I am not for myself, who will be for me? But if I am only for myself-what am I? And if not now, when? (Avot 1:14).

While we must vote taking our own interests into concern, we must also remember that we are voting based on what we feel is best for our country as a whole. Additionally, we must try not to allow pessimism, or excuses like "my vote doesn't really count anyway," or "this election will be determined by a handful of states and NJ isn't one of them," or "I don't like either of the candidates," to get in our way of doing the right thing and voting in this election. We must add our voices to the broader community, and, as Hillel reminds us, "If not now, when?"

How each of us votes is an extremely personal matter, but as with all things in life we should strive to incorporate our Jewish values into this decision. Does the candidate we are choosing stand for the Jewish values of tikkun olam, healing our world, and bringing tzedakah, righteousness into our world? In general, are the candidates' stances on national and international issues, ranging from Israel to the environment, to education, aligned with Jewish values? People on either side of the aisle can disagree about policy, but Jewish values should lie at the center of the discussion.

Lastly, especially as we are coming out of the High Holiday season, let us remember to use our words, our texts, our posts and our blog comments with care. This political season has seen a lack of respect, civility, and honor for "the other" throughout. As Jews who value respectful civil discourse, and who cherish the notion that there may indeed be more than one way to look at any given issue, let us each strive to act accordingly as we lead up to, and past, this important election.

Many of our grandparents and great grandparents could not have dreamed of the opportunity to participate in setting the direction of the society in which they lived. Let us, who have this privilege and responsibility, take this obligation and opportunity seriously.

Vasher Koach to our Bat Mitzvah!

My name is Emma Vasen and I will become a Bat Mitzvah on October 20, 2012. I live in Wayside with my older brother, Robby, and my parents, Jodi and Art. I am in the seventh grade at Ocean Township Intermediate School. My favorite subject is math, but I also enjoy reading, writing and exploring the world of science.

Softball is my favorite sport. For my Mitzvah Project I am collecting pre-owned softball equipment and sending it to the International Softball Foundation. They send this equipment to people in other countries who cannot afford to buy their own. I want everyone to have the opportunity to participate in the sport I love. If you have any used softball equipment at home, you can contact me at e_vasen@hotmail.com and I will gladly arrange to pick it up.

My Torah portion is from Noah. The third verse that I will chant is mostly about the genealogy from Shem to Abraham. This section reminds us that tradition is important to the Jewish people. The story of Noah is about the journey toward righteousness. I believe that living a righteous life means acting in a way that makes you proud even when no one is looking or when other people are doing the wrong thing.

I look forward to becoming a Bat Mitzvah with much anticipation. I am excited to share this special day with my family, friends, and the congregation.

Rabbi Jacob Friedman School of Jewish Studies Mini-Walk4Life October 14th

Dear Parents, Grandparents, and Friends,

This year, Mitzvah Day occurs on Sunday, Oct. 14th, 2012. On that day, during Religious School, the students at Congregation Torat El will be participating in a mini-Walk4Life around the Temple parking lot. This is the Religious School version of the Walk4Life (5K) being conducted at 11:00 A.M. at Pier Village to benefit the organization Gift of Life.

The Gift of Life Bone Marrow Foundation (www.giftoflife.org) helps children and adults suffering from leukemia, lymphoma, or other cancers and genetic disorders by finding a matching donor for blood and marrow transplants. The Mini-Walk4Life at the Temple is designed to educate the students and create an awareness among students about this program while raising money for this worthy cause. These donations will help the organization in many ways, one of them being in the purchasing of "swab kits", which help find potential donors. To make your donation, please log on to www.giftoflife.org/walk4life; Click on 'register'; Type in Team Chai; Click on 'Make a Gift'. You can also make donations by providing a check payable to Gift of Life.

The Temple point of contact for this initiative is Lisa Guss, cell # 732-245-6571, email address: lisa.guss@verizon.net.

To sponsor a student in the mini-walk4life at the Religious School, please complete the following form and return it by October 14. Thank you!

The Maccabzats ~ A Huge Success!

On Sunday September 9th close to 340 people attended a fabulous concert performed by the Maccabeats – the all male a cappella group from Yeshiva University. For almost two hours we were entertained with a wonderful mix of songs – from Jewish tunes to Justin Bieber. Both young and old were clapping, singing and having a fun-filled afternoon. Wonderful refreshments were offered and their CD's and T-shirts were available for purchase as a great reminder of the terrific afternoon. It was so nice to see people from throughout the community share in this event at our temple. Please check out the CTE website to look at pictures from this day.

A warm thank you to Vickie Amron and Joanne Bass in the Congregation Torat El office for all their help in the success of the Maccabeats concert.

A very special thank you to our Executive Director Pam Cardullo who always guides us and helps us willingly with all phases of our fundraising efforts. We could not have done it without her.

Hazak Presents...

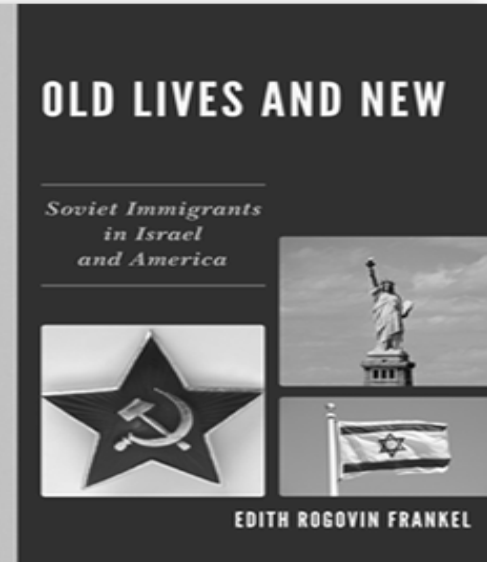

Edith Rogovin Frankel, author of Old Lives and New

Sunday, October 14th ~ 3:00pm

Join us as we welcome Edith Rogovin Frankel to Congregation Torat El.

Ms. Frankel is a political scientist who has published widely on the Soviet Union and Soviet Jews.

Her book, Old Lives and New is the moving story of a number of individuals who made the difficult and sometimes hazardous decision to leave their home, family, and friends and start new lives in Israel and the United States.

Please RSVP to the temple office at 732-531-4410 by October 9th

There is no admission charge for this event and all members and their guests are welcome.

CONGREGATION TORAT EL HAZAK PRESENTS... FILM FEST FOR GROWN-UPS

Sunday, November 4th 3:30pm

"Noodle"

At thirty-seven, Miri is a twice-widowed, El Al flight attendant. Her well-regulated existence is suddenly turned upside down by an abandoned Chinese boy whose migrant-worker mother has been summarily deported from Israel. The film is a touching comic-drama in which two human beings; as different from each other as Tel Aviv is from Beijing; accompany each other on a remarkable journey, one that takes them both back to a meaningful life.

Join us for a great afternoon!
