From The Rabbi's Study...

DON'T FORGET YOUR HOMEWORK

"Did you do your homework?" This was a question that I was asked on a daily basis throughout elementary school. My mother (z"l) was a teacher and a stickler for making sure that I was always prepared before going to school the next day. Homework is one of our most important tools for success in life. Think about it for a moment. Before we step into a meeting for work, we should do our homework. Before we make a major financial decision such as buying a car, or a more minor one such as buying a new electronic gadget, we should do our homework. Before we take any type of test at school, or for work, or for a renewal of our Drivers license, we should do our homework. Homework is about being prepared, and preparation is often the key to success in life.

The High Holy Days are no different. On Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur we are given one of the most challenging and important tasks of our lives as our tradition challenges us to engage in thoughtful introspection, examining our hearts and souls as we explore our relationship to God and our fellow human beings. Where have we been successful in these relationships, and where have we fallen short? What can we do to ensure that these relationships are successful, meaningful, and holy? These are major questions that require a good deal of homework on our part. We cannot simply show up to Synagogue for three days and hope that we will work everything out. The experience that we share together on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is a necessary component to engaging in the task of cheshbon hanefesh (introspection), and teshuvah (repentance) but it is not sufficient.

Fortunately, our tradition has given us a homework assignment to help ensure the success of these High Holy Days. The Rabbis teach that the month of Elul preceding Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is a time for thoughtful reflection on our relationship to God, to ourselves, and to one another. In other words, we have a month to do our homework. We have a month to prepare and figure out just how we want to change, before we can do the serious work involved in the ten days of repentance from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur.

Meaningful change takes time and the gift of Elul gives us the time that we desperately need to put our lives and our relationships back on track. Below are a few homework suggestions for the month of Elul to ensure that we get the most out of our High Holy Day experience.

1. Go through your calendar from this past year and see how you spent your time. What are you happy about and what would you do differently?
2. Teshuvah (repentance), Tzedakah (acting with righteousness), and Tefilah (prayer) are three major themes of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. What do you do to make each of these things a part of your life and why are they important in the first place?
3. Take a few moments each day to study about the High Holy Days in general, or explore the Machzor and the Biblical texts that we read throughout the holidays. How can these texts help you do the serious work of teshuvah?
4. Spend some time reflecting on your personal relationships with friends, family, and co-workers. In what ways have you fallen short with your end of these relationships and how can you work to correct that shortcoming?
5. Spend some time reflecting on your relationship to God. How do you understand God and what role does God play in your daily life?

These are just a few suggestions for ways that you might use the month of Elul productively. As always, please call or e-mail if you would like some help with this homework! It is not the easiest of assignments, but then again, the truly important assignments in life are rarely easy. Jane-Rachel and I wish you all a Shanah Tovah U'metukah. May you have a sweet New Year and may you be inscribed in the Book of Life.

Yasher Koach to our B'nai Mitzvah!

My Mitzvah Project

My name is Josh Pickelny and I will become a Bar Mitzvah on September 8, 2012. I'm very excited because I have worked very hard in Hebrew School and in my lessons with the cantor, and I want it to show. It will be a great day for my family and me.

I live in Wayside with my two cats, sister, Shelby, father and mom, Jeff and Linda. My Mitzvah project is to help the local cub scouts in Pack 36. I dedicated my time to help, whether it was assisting the leaders as they set-up and cleaned up their meetings, or helping the scouts with skills, like knot-tying and first-aid. I also went on camp-outs and taught the boys fire and pocket-knife safety, and how to pitch tents.

Currently, I play on an Ocean Township Youth Baseball summer travel league. I also have played on the Indians, an Ocean Township Little League Majors team, and a travel team in Tinton Falls. I am a strong first baseman and outfielder, but like to experiment with other positions like pitcher and catcher, and I'm not too bad!

My Torah portion is Ki Tavo. It is the portion that discusses tithe, which to me sounds a lot like charity. I think this is a good portion because my family and I always try to help those less fortunate.

My Mitzvah Project

My name is Shelby Pickelny and I will become a Bat Mitzvah on September 8th 2012. Josh Pickelny, my twin brother, will also become a Bar Mitzvah on that day. We're having a B'nai Mitzvah! So not only will this be a special and important occasion for my brother, my family, and me, but an unusual event for everyone else as well! I live in Wayside with my mom and dad, Linda and Jeff, brother, Josh, and two cats named Dill and Pickles-they're twins too!

My Mitzvah project is to sell bracelets and donate the money earned to the American Diabetes Association. Since two members of my family have Diabetes, I thought it would be a great Mitzvah project, especially when it hits so close to home. I am selling the bracelets for $3.00 each. If you would like to buy a bracelet or donate money, please email me at pickelny@optonline.net. Thanks! I enjoy playing soccer and I love to dance, but my absolute favorite activity is acting. I started acting in the first grade and since then I've performed in six productions. Fun Fact!! The summer after second grade my acting camp presented Peter Pan and guess what? I had the starring role--Peter Pan!

My Torah portion is Ki Tavo, which is a portion that talks about "Karma." Good things happen to good people and bad things happen to bad people...even though it doesn't always work that way. Ki Tavo is a perfect guideline to follow for everyone!

"In Those Days at This Time": The Origins and Celebration of Hanukkah: From Ancient Times to the Present - This three-session Context Mini-Course, taught by university level scholar/teachers, explores the origins of Hanukkah and how the festival changed and developed in the medieval and modern periods. Sessions explore central texts, rituals, and the role the holiday has come to play in Jewish national and cultural life. This special learning opportunity is open to the Monmouth County Jewish Community and is sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Monmouth County. Context is a program of the Institute for Jewish Learning of JTS. Wednesday Evenings, Oct. 31, Nov. 7 and 14. 7:30-9:00pm at CTE Registration Fee: $36

What Page Are We On, Part II: Analyzing the Torah Service and Musaf - Cantor Siegel continues with the second and final portion of his course examining in depth all aspects of the Shabbat morning service; history, structure, meaning, and melody. This year we'll analyze both the Torah Service and Musaf. The class is open and accessible to all, including those who didn't attend last year's sessions. Come and see why we do what we do on Shabbat. Sunday Mornings 10:00-11:00am beginning November 4th. (Why not come at 8:30am and help make a Minyan for someone saying Kaddish? It's a mitzvah!)

Journey Through The Hebrew Bible - Do you want to learn more about the world's longest running best seller? Come and join Rabbi Schonbrun as we learn more about the Hebrew Bible (Tanakh). What is in the Tanakh? Where did it come from and how was it put together? Most importantly, what does the Tanakh have to teach us and how does our biblical text relate to our daily lives? Bring your questions and bring a friend! Monday Evenings, November 5th-December 10th 7:30pm. (Why not come at 7pm and help make a Minyan for someone saying Kaddish? It's a mitzvah!)

BYOB (Bring Your Own Bagel) Lunch and Learn - Are you looking for a way to add more meaning to your life? Join Rabbi Schonbrun and take one hour out of your busy week to engage in Jewish learning. This fall we will continue learning from the Ziegler Adult Learning Series produced by the American Jewish University exploring Jewish topics related to Social Justice. Join us and please bring a friend! Wednesday Afternoons, 12:00-1:00pm beginning November 7th.

Living Room Learning with Rabbi Schonbrun - Not able or no time to come to the synagogue? You choose the topic and we provide the rabbi! Rabbi Schonbrun will lead a Chavurah at your home! Invite your friends and neighbors to join us! Groups of at least 10 requested. Limited amount of dates, so sign up now! 732-531-4410. First class, December 4th

College Packages: We are gathering addresses of students who are studying away from home. Congregation Torat El Sisterhood normally sends out 3 packages a year: Hanukkah (December 8-16, 2012), Purim (February 23-24, 2013) and Passover (March 25- April 2, 2013) to our college students. The package usually consists of something relating to the holiday (Hamantachen for Purim, Matzoh for Passover) and other kosher snacks. The packages are compliments of Sisterhood.

If you would like Sisterhood to send a package to your college student, please send their college address to therosenhecks@msn.com by October 1, 2012. Please type "college packages address" in subject line. Packages are sent the week before the holiday. If your student will not be at college due to their Spring break or studying abroad during any of the dates noted above please let us know so we do not send that package.

Hazak Presents...

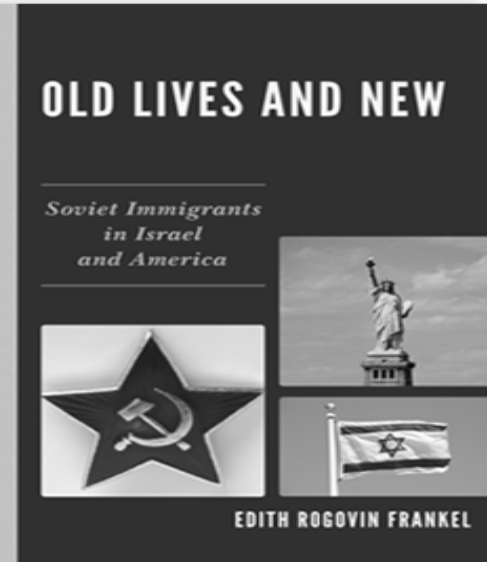

Edith Rogovin Frankel, author of Old Lives and New

Sunday, October 14th ~ 3:00pm

Join us as we welcome Edith Rogovin Frankel to Congregation Torat El.

Ms. Frankel is a political scientist who has published widely on the Soviet Union and Soviet Jews.

Her book, Old Lives and New is the moving story of a number of individuals who made the difficult and sometimes hazardous decision to leave their home, family, and friends and start new lives in Israel and the United States.

Please RSVP to the temple office at 732-531-4410 by October 9th

There is no admission charge for this event and all members and their guests are welcome.

CONGREGATION TORAT EL HAZAK PRESENTS... FILM FEST FOR GROWN-UPS

Sunday, November 4th 3:30pm

"Noodle"

At thirty-seven, Miri is a twice-widowed, El Al flight attendant. Her well-regulated existence is suddenly turned upside down by an abandoned Chinese boy whose migrant-worker mother has been summarily deported from Israel. The film is a touching comic-drama in which two human beings; as different from each other as Tel Aviv is from Beijing; accompany each other on a remarkable journey, one that takes them both back to a meaningful life.

Join us for a great afternoon!

Movie and Kosher Chinese Dinner

Hazak members $8 ~ Guests $10

ADMITTANCE BY RESERVATION ONLY!

June 28-July 5. The dates for 2013 are June 26-July 3.

We all call it Hazak Camp. I noticed on the application form that it says Hazak Retreat! Whatever you want to call it, it is great fun! This year was no exception. I attended a week of camping with the Hazak group in the Poconos. Hazak is an organization for United Synagogue seniors - couples and singles. The site is beautiful. The camp has arts and crafts, a fitness center, walking trails and all kinds of other camp activities. There is entertainment in the evenings.

What was so wonderful about camp this year? It was that as usual, everything was up to their standard of great - In no particular order, the staff, the classes, the activities, the other participants, and the food.

The wait staff and the camp staff were from all over the world. They are always enthusiastic, charming and helpful.

There were about 100 people attending - a large group from the Maryland area, some from Florida and Kansas.

I always enjoy the lectures and this year they were:

- Gloria Goldreich –The Jew as Perceived in World Literature
Sheldon Horowitz – Prime Ministers of Israel
Dr. Marsha Bryan Edelman – Spirit and Song - Jewish music with lectures and singing
Dr. Randall Woodfield – The Pleasure of the Text - music of Gilbert & Sullivan, Sondheim and Cole Porter
Rabbi Moshe Edelman – Women for all Seasons: Prominent, Powerful, Passionate (Hannah, Serach bat Asher, and Ruth)
The Prayer Book Exposed
Perek on the Porch – Ethics of the Sages for 18 minutes

At Hazak Camp, there are plenty of activities or non-activities for everyone!
