Standing In Judgment Of Our Judgments

It is almost that time of year again with Rosh Hashanah a few weeks away. There are many different names for the Jewish New Year: Rosh Hashanah (the "head" of the year), Yom Hazikaron (the day of remembrance), Yom Teruah (the day of the sounding of the Shofar), Yom Ha-Din (the day of judgment). It is this last title, Yom Ha-Din, which has my attention as I begin thinking about these upcoming Days of Awe. Traditionally, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are centered around the theme of judgment because we are joining with our community, and coming before our God to "be judged" by God, and to judge ourselves as we take stock of our actions over this past year. But I think that there is more to it than that. Yom Ha-Din is also a time for us to think about the ways in which we judge others, and ask ourselves whether or not we are always fair in our judgments. Consider the following two stories which each offer some insightful advice about striving to be more generous in our judgments in the coming year. The first is told by Rabbi Sharon Braus of IKAR in Los Angeles. She writes:

I was young and earnest with a dream summer internship at the Justice Department, living in dorms crowded with college kids from around the country. My roommate was coming a week late and I anxiously awaited her arrival, certain we'd be best friends forever. Way too early one morning, there was a knock on my door. "Hi. I'm your roommate" she said coolly, pushing past me. "So happy to finally meet you!" I said. "Where are you working this summer?" No answer. "Have you lived in DC before?" Still no answer. "There're some great people on our floor – I'd love to introduce you..." She wouldn't even make eye contact with me! My face started to burn – I turned and walked out of the room, embarrassed by what an easy cry I was. I called my folks, convinced that this was going to be the worst summer of my life. Should I try to switch rooms? Get an apartment? Pack up and escape back to New York?

I avoided the dorms until late that night, and when I finally returned I was relieved to see that the lights were out and nightmare roommate was sound asleep. As I tiptoed in, I noticed a note on my pillow: I'm so sorry we didn't have time to connect more today. My name is Cathy, and I'm working on the Hill. I just want to let you know that I'm deaf, so if I'm not looking directly at you, I won't know that you're talking to me. Sorry – should have mentioned that this morning – it's always awkward when I meet new people. By the way, I saw that you're reading Invisible Man. That's my favorite book! Can't wait to get to know you this summer.

For the sin that I committed before You by assuming the worst of Your children. Please forgive me.

The second story is based on a tale told by Rabbi Brad Hirschfield:

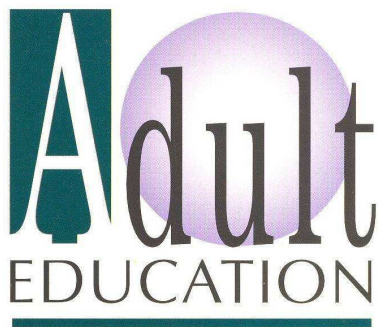

Two rabbis were walking down the street and involved in a conversation when they came across a simple Jew who had stopped by the side of the road. The man was greasing the wheels of his wagon. Both rabbis immediately noticed that the man was wearing tefilin, objects worn by observant Jews during prayers.

One rabbi called out, "What are you doing?" He said, "Come out from under there!" The simple Jew stopped greasing the wheels and stood up next to the wagon. "There are rules about how we're supposed to wear tefilin," this rabbi said. "You have to have a clean body -- a pure body -- when you wear your tefilin." This rabbi was clearly upset. He continued to rant: "You're doing one of the most disgusting, grimy jobs possible, and you're wrapped in one of the holiest objects a Jew can put on. What are you thinking? What's wrong with you?" The simple Jew felt ashamed and embarrassed. He began to cry. "You're right, rabbi," the man said. "I know those rules. I know that I shouldn't be wearing my tefilin when I'm greasing the wheels of my wagon," he said between sobs. "I know that it's offensive. I don't know what else to say except that I'm sorry. I'm so, so sorry."

The second Rabbi, the famous Levi Yitchak of Berdichev, could no longer contain himself. He screamed out with incredible joy. "Master of the Universe, Lord of the World, look at this beautiful man, this holy Jew. See how devoted he is -- how devoted all of your people Israel are to you. Even when they're greasing the wheels of their wagons, they want to be wrapped in your presence, Lord. That's how much they love you!" (Becker, Three Times Chai)

Rosh Hashanah is a time for each of us stand before God in judgment. But it is equally a time for us to stand before the mirror in judgment and consider the ways in which we, often unfairly, judge others. As Rosh Hashanah approaches, let us take the time to reflect and ask ourselves: Am I someone who is "quick to judge," or am I someone who likes to take my time when a judgment is necessary? Am I someone who gives others the benefit of the doubt, or am I quick to condemn someone based on my initial perceptions of their behavior? Am I someone who is extremely judgmental and critical, or do I consciously look for the positive in all of my interactions with others? Am I someone who is open when it comes to my initial assessment of others, or am I often quick to "make up my mind?" As creatures who strive to be God's partner in this world, we have been blessed with the privilege and responsibilities that come along with making judgments each and every day. As we look forward to a new year, may each of us use this gift with care, thoughtfulness, and generosity; mirroring the ways in which each of us hope to be "judged" by God in the year to come.

Jane-Rachel and I wish you and your family a shanah tovah u'metukah, a good and sweet new year!

2016-2017 RABBI SCHONBRUN'S COURSE OFFERINGS

Creating Mindful and Meaningful High Holy Days

It's that time of year again! A time for reflection, renewal, and redirection as we are blessed with the gift of a New Year. But taking advantage of this opportunity each year is usually easier said than done. Do you find it difficult to gain any meaning from the High Holy Days service experience? Do you find it challenging to make the most out of this fresh start each year? Do you want to figure out how to make your Jewish New Year's resolutions actually stick? Then come and join us for this two-part series designed to get us in the proper frame of mind for these upcoming Yamim Noraim, Days of Awe.

Wednesdays, September 14, 21 - 7:30pm

Lunch 'n Learn - Journey Through The Torah

We read the Torah in synagogue every week, often choosing a verse or a narrative to study on Shabbat morning. But how many of you have read through the Torah carefully from cover to cover, studying each verse and each chapter of the world's longest "best seller?" Just what exactly is contained in these Five Books of Moses, and how can our most sacred text address some of the most pressing issues of our lives and of our world? To find out answers to these questions and more, come and join us once a week for a journey through the Torah. Bring your friends, your questions, and an openness to letting the words of Torah touch your heart and soul. No previous Bible study necessary. We look forward to seeing you!

Wednesdays, beginning October 26 - 12:00-1:00pm

L'dor va-dor: Sharing Our Values From Generation to Generation

L'dor va-dor -- for thousands of years our people have passed on our heritage and the communal story of our people "from generation to generation." Although the spoken word plays a large role in Judaism, it is the written word, the stories that are written down, and retold, that have ultimately ensured our survival.

This course will encourage us to answer the question found at the center of the national hit Broadway show Hamilton, which asks the audience to consider: "Who lives, who dies, who tells your story?"

Wednesdays, November 9, 16, 30, December 7, 14 7:30pm

Jewish Values and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict-Cost?

Through video lectures, text study, and lively group discussion, we are pleased to bring the world-renowned faculty of the Shalom Hartman Institute into the Torat El community.

Through the study of Jewish narratives about Israel and the unpacking of the complex meanings of peace in Jewish tradition, we will explore the ideas and values that animate different attitudes toward the conflict and how these values shape our own political understandings of the situation. Though our political opinions and suggestions concerning how to handle the Israeli-Palestinian conflict may not always be in agreement, this course strives to achieve a shared respect for our differences.

Each session includes text study and discussion led by Rabbi Schonbrun, a video lecture by Rabbi Dr. Donniel Hartman, and a video dialogue between Rabbi Hartman and other top scholars and experts. Join us for this wonderful opportunity to learn from great scholars, from our own Rabbi Schonbrun, and from one another as we engage in thinking about the Jewish values that underlie one of the most politically sensitive and difficult issues facing the Jewish people and the international community.

$20 per person/couple for study guide

In order for us to have enough study guides, please register with the office for this class by January 4th.

Wednesdays, January 18, 25, February 1, 8, 15, 22, March 1, 8, 15 - 7:30-9:15pm

You're Jewish?!? Taking a 21st Century Look at Jews and Jewish Identities

What does it mean to be a Jew in the twenty-first century? What characteristics define Judaism today? Are we a culture, ethnicity, nation, nationality, or religion? Come and join us as we explore a new book written by Dr. Aaron Hahn Tapper of the University of San Francisco entitled:

"Judaisms: A Twenty-First Century Introduction to Jews and Jewish Identity."

Using a variety of themes related to Jewish identity, we will explore a diversity of voices in the Jewish community from the biblical period through today to see how our customs, practices, and beliefs impact the way in which we understand our identity as Jews today.

Wednesdays, April 26, May 3, 10, 17 - 7:30pm

FROM THE DESK OF LAWRENCE SHAPIRO

First and foremost, a hearty Mazel Tov to Rabbi Metz, Lev and Doron on the birth of their son, Eitan Navi, as well as to Jacob and Kate Fineran on the birth of their daughter, Maisie Patricia. I am happy to report that mothers and babies are doing well, and I am sure you all join me in wishing them our heartfelt blessings.

During Rabbi Metz's maternity leave, Sherrie Robinson, the long-time Chairperson of the Education Committee and an educator herself, has agreed to oversee the Religious School. We thank Sherrie for stepping in and I know she has been working hard with Linda Pickelny of the Executive Board, the Education Committee, the teachers, Rabbi Metz, and Rabbi Schonbrun to ensure that the school does not miss a beat.

As we move into September, I am happy to report that the sale of a portion of the Temple land to the Township is finally coming to fruition. We hope to close later this month. The money from that sale will be used to pay for the recent emergent repairs that were made to the roof and flashing of the building. The remaining funds will be held in the "building bucket" (remember the various giving areas we created a few years ago) for future needs.

Finally, I hope you took advantage of the wonderful events which were held during the summer months. Shabbat at the Beach was a great success and very well attended. The Men's Club Golf Outing was a hit. Cantor Greenberg (our High Holy Days Cantor) visited the weekend of August 5-6 and was very well received. And our name tag project is in full swing, with thanks to Steve Fineberg and the Membership Committee so that we can all be more friendly and welcoming on an even more personal level.

There is much more to come as we move into the holiday season, so enjoy the waning days of summer and I look forward to seeing you all soon!

Larry

Federation Accepts Teen Applicants for a New J Team Class

The Jewish Federation in the Heart of New Jersey is accepting applications for the 2016-2017 J Team Teen Philanthropy program. A select group of 9th-12th grade students meet monthly throughout the school year to learn about philanthropy, meet representatives of nonprofit agencies, engage in community service and make charitable donations -- all with a focus on core Jewish values of giving. The teamwork approach to philanthropic giving makes this program a win-win for our community's teens and nonprofit agencies and gives teens the tools to begin a life of giving.

J Teamers each make a donation of $125 and use the knowledge they acquire to propose and select organizations to fund. At the end of the year, team members decide together which programs will receive funding, and how that money is allocated to those programs. The program is hosted by the Jewish Federation in the Heart of New Jersey. Applications and information can be found at www.jewishheartnj.org/teens. Please direct all inquiries to Linda Benish, J Team Coordinator, at lindab@jewishheartnj.org or 732-588-1816. To learn how you can help support or sponsor this program, contact Laura Safran, Director, Community Impact at lauras@jewishheartnj.org.

Singer, Dancer, Story Teller

In her one-woman show...
From Baghdad to Brooklyn

Saturday, November 12, 2016 - 7:30pm
$36 per ticket

Michelle Azar is the daughter of an Iraqi-born, Israeli-raised businessman father and her Brooklyn born and raised, singer-performer Ashkenazi mother. As a child Azar sang on stage with Placido Domingo.

In her one-woman show Michelle Azar takes audiences on her travels from Iraq to Israel to the United States. She shares her quest to balance her Middle Eastern heritage with her background of American culture. With an angelic voice, deep sentiment and humor, Michelle tells a timely story of a family's love, dysfunction and redemption set against a unique historical backdrop.

Shabbat Learn 'n Burn

A spiritual experience to restore your mind, body and soul

Come and join us as we celebrate Shabbat in a variety of ways at our monthly "Spirit of Shabbat" Program. With a recognition that no one size fits all and a commitment to encouraging multiple points of entry for participants, this Shabbat morning seeks to offer multiple ways for you to bring the gift of Shabbat into your lives. Join us for our main service from 9-11:30am. Or participate in our "learn 'n burn" program starting at 9am with a study session followed by a refreshing yoga/meditation class at 10am. Feel free to join us for any or all of our programming and dress in comfortable clothing. Everyone is invited to gather together for our kiddush oneg/luncheon following the programs as we celebrate Shabbat as one community.

First Saturday of each month beginning November 5th through May 6th

Yasher Koach to our B'nai Mitzvah

My name is Jocelyn Assael. I live in Ocean with my mom and dad and two dogs Venus and Oscar. I am in the 7th grade at Ocean Township Intermediate School and I love playing tennis and spending time with my family and friends. My Bat Mitzvah is on September 10th and for my mitzvah project, I participated in "Remember Us," which allowed me to connect my Bat Mitzvah with two children who happened to be my ancestors that perished in the Holocaust before they were able to be called to the Torah for their own B'nai Mitzvahs. This project became even more meaningful to me this summer when I was at Yad Vashem. While there, I was able to perform a service in their honor. I am also involved with the March of Dimes. Having been a preemie myself, I go to the NICU and spend time with the siblings of other preemie babies. I try to do fun things with them to take their minds off of their little brothers and sisters and make their parents time visiting their children that much easier.

Hi, my name is Isabelle Skye Nussbaum. I live in Wayside with my mom and dad, my sister, Sydney and my brother, Dillon. I am in 7th grade at Ocean Township Intermediate School. I have been dancing since I'm three years old and I absolutely love it. I recently started playing field hockey and I am hoping to play on my school team. In addition to sports, I enjoy hanging out with my friends, getting my nails done and shopping! My Bat Mitzvah is September 17, 2016. For my Bat Mitzvah project, I have been volunteering for an organization called Lunch Break. I also have been packaging meals for shut-ins with my family during the holiday season since before I could even walk. I'm happy to help people in need whenever possible because I feel that I am making a difference in someone's life. I'm so excited for my upcoming Bat Mitzvah – I can't wait to see you there!

RITUAL ENGAGEMENT

Congregation Torat El Sisterhood will be sending out Rosh Hashanah (October 3-4, 2016), Purim (March 11-12, 2017) and Passover (April 10- April 18, 2017) packages this year. We will not be sending out Hanukkah (December 24-January 1, 2017) due to the dates it falls this year and all the students will be home. The packages usually consist of something relating to the holiday (Hamentaschen for Purim, Matzoh for Passover) and other kosher snacks. The packages are compliments of Sisterhood.

If you would like Sisterhood to send a package to your college student, please send their college address to Laurie Gross at: lauried144@aol.com by September 15, 2016. Please type "college packages address" in subject line. Packages are sent the week before the holiday. If your student will not be at college due to their Spring Break or studying abroad during any of the dates noted above, please let us know so we do not send that package. If you sent us an address last year, we must receive updated information. Please do not send "same as last year" without sending the actual address.

A big thank you to Sisterhood for making deliveries!

Embrace the High Holy Days with Selichot

Saturday, September 24th
8:00pm

Selichot and Second Chances!

What would you do if you were given a second chance to fix the mistakes that you have made throughout your life?

How would you take advantage of this opportunity?

As we approach our Jewish season of renewal, we are confronted to think about these questions and more as we prepare to start another year all over again. Join us for a fun and meaningful way to explore these questions and more with a screening of the 90's classic comedy, "Groundhog Day" starring Bill Murray.

Following the film we will have a discussion of its relevance to Selichot and these upcoming Days of Awe, as well as the Selichot service itself. The film is rated PG, and therefore appropriate for a wide range of ages in our community. We look forward to laughing and learning with you as we begin this season of second, third, and fourth chances!

Please RSVP to the temple office so that we can know how many to prepare for 732-531-4410

High Holy Day Babysitting
