SHARING OUR JOY AS A COMMUNITY BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

By the time that you read this article, Purim will almost be upon us. The month of Adar in which Purim falls is traditionally a time when we are supposed to increase our joy and laughter. As the Talmud teaches: Mi Shenichnas Adar, Marbim be'simcha (Babylonian Talmud, Taanit 29a), when the month of Adar comes in, we are to increase our joy. This is why we dress up on Purim, have a raucous Megillah reading and Purim Carnival, and come together to laugh each year around Purim through programs such as our Comedy Night. We hope that you will join us for the Purim festivities this year for some laughter on Saturday night, March 7, and traditional Purim fun on Monday night, March 9 and Tuesday morning, March 10!

Notice that the word for rejoice, marbim, is in the plural. We are meant to rejoice together. Our laughter is something to be shared, as the more that we share our joy with others, the more our joy is increased. Why? As Rabbi Abraham Twerski once taught: When we share with others, their joy becomes ours.

There is a story that comes to mind which is all about the importance of sharing our joy. It is a story called "Capturing the Moon" about the great wise men of Chelm, who always seem so foolish, but who usually leave us with a bit of wisdom at the end of their tale. In this particular story, the people of Chelm have decided that they love the moon so much, they must capture it. After all, when the moon shines brightly in the sky, all of Chelm is happy, but when it disappeared behind the clouds, everyone is in a gloomy mood. Working together day and night the wise men of Chelm come up with the plan. They will build a huge barrel of soup in the middle of the town square, and when they see the moon in the middle of the giant barrel of soup, they will sneak up on it and capture it by placing the cover on top of the barrel. The only problem with this plan is that the next evening, when the villagers go to gaze into the barrel of soup, hoping to be cheered up by the light of the moon, they discover that the moon is gone; it has somehow escaped! Looking up in the sky and seeing the moon high above, the people of Chelm cry: "Woe is us. Someone let out the moon!" For days they search the town, trying to find the culprit, only to discover that it is the last person they would ever suspect – the rabbi. "Why did you do such a thing?" the people asked the rabbi. To which the rabbi replies: "Because there are things that we enjoy while we have them, and there are other things that we enjoy only when we share them. Only when we share the moon, can we really enjoy its light. And so, I let the moon out so that the whole world can share it!" (Feinstein, Capturing the Moon)

The truly joyous things in life – from our celebration of Purim, to our celebration of birthdays, anniversaries, promotions at work, family milestones, are meant to be shared. We all know that our lives, much like the moon, wax and wane. We have good days, and we have bad days. Things can't be wonderful all of the time. But when they are wonderful, having a community with which to share the good things in our lives both increases our joy, and sustains us when the light of our lives is not shining so brightly. That is but one of the reasons that we share good news every week on Shabbat as we gather together as a community.

And yet, while we do a wonderful job sharing in our joy around Purim, and we strive to share good news each week on Shabbat, I want to challenge all of us to do a better job at sharing the light of our lives with one another on a more regular basis. In short, I want to invite us to work on sharing more of our "joys" in addition to our "oys." Our community is very good at knowing when someone dies through a Shiva e-notice, but we need to do a better job at sharing simchas with one another as well, as we celebrate the joy, life, and vibrancy in the life of our Congregation Torat El family. Did you have a new grandchild this year? Did someone in your family get engaged, married, or do you have an anniversary? And yes, we celebrate that relationship regardless of the faith or gender of your partner. Did you get a new job or did your child get into college? Back on Rosh Hashanah we shared some of these things passively on our "wall of happenings." Let's strive to do this in a more consistent and active way.

Here is what I would suggest: If you have a joyous occasion in your life that you would like to commemorate, I invite you to consider the following: join us on a Friday night, Shabbat morning, or weekday service, and let us know that you are coming, so that we can take a moment to recognize your simcha and thank God for all of the blessing and gratitude that you are feeling in your life. Call the office or send an e-mail so that we can include your simcha in our bulletin. If you are a lay leader, share your good news in a committee meeting, or if you are a congregant attending an event, share your good news with those who are sitting around you. If you have other suggestions of ways to share joyous news in and among our community, I would love to hear them. There is much light in our community to be shared. May all of us continue to laugh, celebrate, and give thanks with, and for, one another for many years to come!

Lessons Learned Along the Way...

A few years ago Rabbi Harold Kushner, author of best-selling book When Bad Things Happen To Good People, wrote a memoir reflecting on his life as an author and congregational Rabbi. Entitled simply, Nine Essential Things I've Learned About Life, this short volume explores issues of faith, doubt, fear, forgiveness, mortality and social action. Reflective, practical and relevant to life in the 21st century, Rabbi Kushner has wonderful Jewish advice and life wisdom to offer us. Come and join us as each week we discuss a chapter in this thought-provoking book from one of our movement's greatest thinkers. A CAPITAL CAMPAIGN MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Dear Congregants,

Serving on the Executive Board is an honor. Our responsibility is to uphold the mission of our remarkable synagogue and to ensure its strength for us and those who will follow.

The decision by the full Board that Congregation Torat El undertake its first Capital Campaign was an incredible milestone; and your response has been no less momentous. This truly is OUR STORY of Jewish faith and values, and OUR TIME as we join together to ensure the financial, spiritual and programmatic stability of our congregation.

Our Campaign is moving closer to its goal, yet we are far from the finish line. It is an ambitious aspiration – and we encourage all of you to join us. One aspect of our congregation as a “family of families” is that every congregant who is able to make a gift does so in their own personal way. The donation amount that fits your personal situation best – no matter the amount – adds your voice to the growing chorus of your family, friends and neighbors working to ensure the financial health of our Kehilah Kedoshah - sacred community - now and into the future.

Whether a one-time gift paid in full, or a gift spread over months or years, we need everyone’s participation. There is no doubt our synagogue is truly enhanced when each of us plays a role. Our Campaign ends this Rosh Hashanah. We are so proud of the Campaign goals achieved to date, and thank each of you who have participated. Yet, there is more work to do.

If you have questions, or would like to set up an appointment to discuss your participation in the Campaign, please reach out to any of us, to members of the Board, or call the synagogue office. The synagogue website, www.torat-el.org, has updates, naming opportunities and the pledge form.

There is a beautiful song written by Dan Nichols and Rabbi Mike Moskowitz called Kehilah Kedoshah (Sacred Community). The words are powerful, including:

*Each one of us must play a part.
Each one of us must heed the call.
Each one of us is a part of it all.
Each one of us, each one of us. Kehilah Kedoshah*

OUR STORY. OUR TIME: THE CAMPAIGN FOR CONGREGATION TORAT EL

Our Campaign pledges as of February 13, stand at $1,284,292 toward our overall goal of $1,500,000. There are not enough words of gratitude for your meaningful support. We have over $200,000 to still raise before Rosh Hashanah 5781. We need ALL OF YOU to join us in this exciting endeavor!

For those making pledge payments, if you are able to pay more of your pledge this year, it would be a tremendous help as we work toward paying off all debt by December 2020. We have currently paid off half of our debt!

Matching Gifts provide a wonderful way to double and sometimes even triple your gift to the Capital Campaign. Check with your employer to see if they have a matching gifts program. If they do, complete the appropriate paperwork and be sure to tell us so we credit your extra gift!

The Campaign for Congregation Torat El

Special thanks to Neil & Zelda Becourtney for hosting a group gathering in their home. Thank you to all of the congregants who attended our information session at Seabrook. If you are interested in hosting a get-together, please let Pam know.

Naming Opportunities are Going!

Please check our website: www.torat-el.org/capitalcampaign for all Naming Opportunities still available and consider this unique occasion as a beautiful way to leave a lasting memory of yourself, your family or a loved one. We will continue to mark those 'SOLD' so don't wait too long. Side pews in the Main Sanctuary are almost gone!

Our tradition teaches that we are each a link in the chain of our Jewish heritage. Just as others built for us, so too must we build for the future. This is our opportunity to embrace the privilege and obligation we have to renew our spiritual home for today and tomorrow.

To make a gift, request a donor pledge form, or discuss naming opportunities, please contact Pam Cardullo, Executive Director, at 732-531-4410 - pamc@torat-el.org, or Rachel Port, Campaign Director, at reiink@verizon.net.

Every Last Jew- One Survivor's Story

Each of us has made a promise to survivors of the Holocaust: "Never to forget." Come and join us as we hear a personal story from our very own Stuart Koperweis, whose father, Henry is a Holocaust survivor. Based on the real life events behind the recently published "Every Last Jew," Stuart will share his father's story with us, as well as the way that growing up the son of a Holocaust survivor influenced his life and worldview.

We will also take a few moments to offer some prayers, and light candles in honor of the six million who we lost in the Shoah. In these days where anti-Semitism has once again reared its ugly head in our society, it is critically important that we gather together to remember what can happen in a society filled with hatred of "the other." We invite you to join us as we gather together to hear testimony, to remember, and to gain the strength and inspiration to redouble our efforts to counter hatred and intolerance in this world.

Throughout the millennia, Jews have made their mark in politics and the arts. Here are five new books about famous Jews of the 20th century recently acquired by the CTE Koreen Library:

A State at Any Cost: The Life of David Ben-Gurion by Tom Segev, traces Ben-Gurion's journey from his humble birth in 1886 Poland, through his years as Prime Minister of Israel and onward. Another Israeli Prime Minister still dominating the news is profiled in Bibi, the Turbulent Life and Times of Benjamin Netanyahu by Anshel Pfeffer.

Crossing the ocean to the United States and turning to the arts, we read about one of the most prolific and beloved popular composers in Irving Berlin, New York Genius by James Kaplan. Berlin wrote over 1,500 tunes, including "God Bless America." Turning to the literary arts, The Life of Saul Bellow, Love and Strife, 1965-2005 by Zachary Leader, gives a thorough understanding of how Bellow earned multiple National Book Awards, the Pulitzer Prize, and the Nobel Prize.

The Library also has new inspirational biographies for younger readers. The Book Rescuer by Sue Macy, tells the story of Aaron Lansky, a mensch from Massachusetts, who deserves high praise for his work with The Yiddish Book Center. He nearly single-handedly saved 1.5 million Yiddish pieces of literature from oblivion!

Please stop by the Library and see all the new books recently acquired!

Siyyum Bechorim Calling All First Born (Men and Women)

Wednesday, April 8 at 8:00am

According to Jewish tradition, the first-born son of a mother or father is required to fast on the day before Passover as an expression of thanks for the deliverance of the first-born Israelites who were spared from the Tenth plague. Fortunately, one can be exempt from this fast if he or she has the opportunity to participate in a seudat mitzvah, a festive meal following the completion (siyyum) of a unit of study. Join us for this annual tradition as we study together and celebrate our learning with a festive meal following minyan that will include lots of delicious chametz! Our study and feast will be held in memory and Esther and Ed Deitelbaum, Dr. Larry Karasic and Irving Bohm, and are sponsored by their family. All are welcome to join us even if you are not a first born.

Sale of Chametz

During the week of Pesach, it is forbidden for any Jew to own chametz. To avoid the unnecessary financial hardship that could result from requiring Jews to dispose of all items that are chametz, it is tradition to sell items of chametz to non-Jews for the week of Pesach. If you would like to sell your chametz to ensure that you abide by the Jewish law of not owning any chametz during the week of Pesach, please fill out the form below and return it to the Temple office on or before end of day Monday, April 6.

Dear Rabbi Schonbrun,

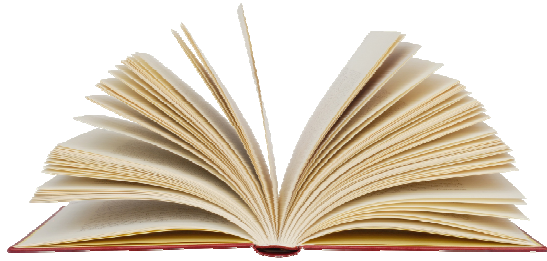

I/we _____ (name) would like to appoint you as my/our agent to sell all items of chametz that will be in my/our possession at:

This sale will be effective at 10:30am on Wednesday, April 8.

MEET THE AUTHOR SERIES

CONGREGATION TORAT EL

SUNDAY, March 22, 11:00AM

Meet Mamta Chaudhry, author of Haunting Paris

Haunting Paris is an evocative story of love and loss that explores the grief from losing a partner, the protective conspiracies of family secrets, and the power of memory. The story moves between the summer of 1989 and Paris in July of 1942, at the time of the infamous Val D'Hiv Roundup. This poignant debut novel is both a love letter to Paris and an exposure of the dark side of the City of Light.

Mamta Chaudhry has worked in television and radio in Calcutta, Texas and Florida. Her writing has been published in the Miami Review, The Statesman, and The Telegraph. This is her first novel.

Pre-Paid $15 per person/$20 at the door
Books are available at the temple office
A light brunch will be served
Reservations at www.torat-el.org or 732-531-4410
