THE MOST IMPORTANT MOMENT

The year was 2011 and the occasion was the second day of Rosh Hashanah. I delivered a sermon entitled: "Planning Less and Living More," all about how we might come to learn to "let go" somewhat of the many plans, outcomes, and desires that we all have in our lives, choosing instead to live our lives in the moment with an awareness of the gift that each day brings.

I spoke about the well-known Yiddish expression that mann traoch, got lauch, human beings make plans and God laughs. Who could have imagined how very true those lessons of living in the moment would prove to be to our world nearly ten years later as we continue to sit in the middle of a global pandemic and, on some days, become overwhelmed with fears and anxieties that this period will "never end." The uncertainty, the worry, the anxiety about our future and the challenging nature of planning can get us "stuck." And if you are a planner (like me), this type of unknown future can be particularly challenging. "What will school look like in the fall?" those of us with children wonder. "What will my job look like in the coming months? Will I have a job?" we worry. "When is the next time that we will be able to visit our family, go on vacation, go shopping, go to a sporting event, get back to life?!" we ask one another. "What will our synagogue look like when we get back to 'normal;' What is 'normal?" we ask. And how is this "virtual" High Holiday experience that I received a letter about actually going to work?" (Don't worry, we are working on it and are going to do our best to make it a meaningful, multi-dimensional, comprehensive and spiritual experience)!

As I write these words it is perhaps fitting that I am in the middle of a week-long virtual "zoom retreat" with cantors and rabbis across the country and across denominations about creating a mindfulness practice. Through the study of mystical and Hasidic texts, and employing mindfulness practices of the body, soul, and mind – we are being taught how to be more present in our lives, more present in each moment as it arises. How might we learn to accept whatever is happening at a given moment; not necessarily to acquiesce to it, not necessarily to challenge it, but rather to understand it and then decide how best to proceed. In some ways my exploration of this neo Hasidic spiritual practice of mindfulness is a more sophisticated version of what I was trying to get at in that sermon ten years ago about learning to be present in our lives. And it most certainly has bearing on this moment in which we find ourselves.

For so many of us, making plans has come to a standstill. We simply do not know what the future will bring and can't even make a very good educated guess. Even when we do plan and look forward, many of us have come to recognize and appreciate in this time of COVID-19, just how much we make plans and "God laughs." We have come to understand just how much the universe simply does not always want to cooperate with our hopes and desires.

So what are we to do? How are we to respond? For that I turn to a story that I shared in that very same Rosh Hashanah sermon years ago. It is a story about a Hasidic rabbi who asked his students to describe the most important moment in history. The students responded with many suggestions, including the crossing of the Red Sea, the giving of Torah on Mount Sinai, and the conquest of Jerusalem. But none of them were correct. What was the most important moment in history? The most important moment, taught the rabbi, is right now (Feinstein, World of High Holidays, Vol.3).

Hayom, (today) we will say toward the end of our Rosh Hashanah service from across time and space as we gather virtually this year, holding one another together even as we dwell physically apart.

Today.

Today is the most important moment that we have. Today is the most important moment to cherish. Today is the moment that we are so blessed to have. Today is the day that we must strive to wake up to our lives and pay attention to the blessings that we have amidst life's challenges.

Like many other moments in our daily lives, there is no question that the ritual experience of these upcoming High Holidays will be strange and different, filled with loss, and filled with excitement at meeting the challenges of the moment. But let us remember that they will also be filled with a constant and wise truth; with a recognition taken from the Rosh Hashanah liturgy that hayom harat olam, today — the world was created, yet again. Today, we are blessed with another day, with a world that is open to us. Today we are blessed and challenged to be present with all that we have. Today, and every day, we are called on to appreciate the truth of our daily lives, of our existence, and remind ourselves that it is this very awareness that can and will help us make it through the challenge and blessing that we call life.

With blessings and wishes of health and safety for you and your loved ones as we prepare to begin a new year together.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Greetings.

As the first year of my presidency has wrapped up, I sit and contemplate how the current circumstances are very different from anything I could have envisioned when I agreed to serve as President!

I could not have imagined that we'd be focusing on moving all of our programs and services online. While outwardly this appeared to be an almost seamless transition, it has been a huge undertaking -- so far involving Shabbat services, B'nai Mitzvah tutoring, Religious School classes, a Passover Seder, a Bat Mitzvah, Board of Trustees, Sisterhood and Men's Club installation, adult education classes and the Meet the Author series.

As we all adjust to this "new normal," we need to continue to be creative, and experiment to find ways to build familiar spiritual and social engagement online.

I encourage you to continue to participate in our virtual services and programs and I invite you to connect and help us with new programming ideas. Please feel free to reach out to me at any time at (732) 531-0511.

I hope that you and your families continue to stay healthy and safe.

Laurie Gross

The building remains closed. Please see page 2 of this bulletin for a list of phone extensions and emails for the office staff and rabbi.

All daily services, Shabbat services, Adult Education, and other creative programming will be held via Zoom. Please continue to check your email and our website for continuous updates. If you do not receive our emails, please email Pam at pamc@torat-el.org immediately to give us your email address.

If you are having trouble signing in to Zoom, or need to be reminded of the password to all services, please email Pam at pamc@torat-el.org. If you are unable to connect on your computer, phone or iPad, consider using the dial-in phone number and you can hear and participate in the services.

The office has a list of volunteers who are available to help those who need assistance with prescription pickup, light grocery shopping or other small errands. Please call Pam if you are in need of any assistance

MAZEL TOV TO OUR BAT MITZVAH

My name is Rachael Ann Walsh. I live in Wayside with my Mom, Dad, sister Madelyn, and our dog Ziggy. I am in 8th Grade at Ocean Township Intermediate School. I love to play travel soccer and tennis, travel the world with my family, go to the beach, and hang out with my friends. Last summer, 13 members of my family and I went on an AMAZING trip to Israel. One of the special places we visited and spent time at was Yad Vashem. This had great meaning to me, and for my Bat Mitzvah Project, I chose to participate in the Twinning Program through Yad Vashem. The Twinning Program matched me with a young girl that did not have the opportunity to become a Bat Mitzvah, because she perished in the Holocaust. This became a way for me to connect to and learn about a young girl my age who did not have the same opportunities as me, and gave me a deeper meaning in how lucky I am to be able to become a Bat Mitzvah. In addition, I participated in The Holocaust Survivors Assistance Program with Jewish Family & Children's Service. I was able to attend a music program with the Holocaust survivors, help to serve them lunch, and spend time offering companionship and conversation. As a Jewish adult, I would like to do my very best to give more of myself than receive. I am very excited for my upcoming Bat Mitzvah on August 15th, and I cannot wait to see you on Zoom!

- ♦ Support the Campaign and Get a Tax Break – The CARES Act offers a generous new tax benefit to help you support The Campaign for Congregation Torat El. Here's what you need to know:
 - ♦ The CARES Act includes a new $300 'nonitemizer' tax deduction for 2020.
 - ♦ All eligible donations made in 2020 will go toward this deduction, up to $300 in total.
 - ♦ You are eligible for this deduction even if you do not itemize your taxes.
 - ♦ This means that when you donate to Congregation Torat El, you will be eligible to receive a tax break of up to $300 in addition to the standard deduction.
- ♦ Are You Over Age 70? If you are 70.5 or older and you have a Traditional IRA, you're eligible to make a tax-free donation to Congregation Torat El even if you don't itemize deductions on your return! It's called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) and it's a donation you make straight from your IRA.
- ♦ Participate by Naming A Pew
There are ONLY 6 SIDE PEWS and 15 CENTER PEWS REMAINING
Side pews ($10,000) or Center pews ($25,000) provide a special way to honor and/or memorialize family or friends with a personalized plaque on a pew in the Main Sanctuary. These gifts can be paid off over up to five years. Please reach out to Pam or Rachel with any questions.
- ♦ Other Naming Opportunities
In addition to naming a pew, there are many naming opportunities still available. Consider this unique occasion as a beautiful way to leave a lasting memory of yourself, your family or a loved one. All naming opportunities are available online at www.torat-el.org/capitalcampaign. Please reach out to Pam or Rachel with any questions.
- ♦ For Those Currently Making Pledge Payments, if you are able to pay more of your pledge by December 31, it would be a tremendous help as we work toward paying off as much of the remaining debt by December 2020. We have currently paid off more than half of our debt!
- ♦ Matching Gifts provide a wonderful way to double and sometimes even triple your gift to the Capital Campaign. Check with your employer to see if they have a matching gifts program. If they do, complete the appropriate paperwork and be sure to tell us so we credit your extra gift!

Preparing Amidst A Pandemic: Spiritual Teachings For A New Year

It is certainly safe to say that this will be a Yamim Noraim like no other. How might we prepare ourselves -- emotionally, spiritually, and practically as we celebrate these High Holidays "together" this year? During these times of struggle, uncertainty, and anxiety, how can the spiritual wisdom of these Days of Awe lift us up by helping us return to our most cherished Jewish values, repair our troubled relationships, and remain grounded in our faith as we move forward into the unknown of 5781?

Zoom link will be emailed. Please use our temple password.
