THIS IS THE YEAR TO BUILD A SUKKAH IN THE BACKYARD

As you read these words, we are a couple of weeks away from the Yamim Noraim, the Days of Awe. As I have written and shared with you in classes and weekly messages over these past few weeks, this Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur will surely be like no other. As we begin to re-examine our lives and work to improve ourselves during Rosh Hashanah, and face our mortality on Yom Kippur, this year the themes of these Days of Awe are all too real. How would we behave if we knew that today was our last day, asks Yom Kippur? What would we do, if we truly understood that each of us only has a very limited time in this world – we are to ask ourselves? Do we wake up each day committed to creating the best versions of ourselves that is possible – we are to consider. The past six months of living through a global pandemic have raised these questions as well, and in some senses we have been living this High Holidays season for some time now.

Enter Sukkot. Sukkot is about rebuilding. Sukkot is about looking forward and re-entering into a world once we have faced our mistakes, worked on our flaws, and considered our mortality. There is a custom that the very first thing we are to do when Yom Kippur is over is put the first nail in our Sukkah – a sign that we are committed to rebuilding anew this year. But notice what we are building. A rickety, wobbly dwelling place whose structural soundness, if done “correctly,” is questioned at least once! As I write these words I recall entering into a Sukkah once that was hastily put together by people with little experience in construction or engineering. When Jane-Rachel and I walked into the Sukkah to be the first ones to “check it out,” it immediately collapsed in on us! Luckily, no one was hurt. But that’s the thing about Sukkot. We purposely build structures that are fragile, that are not completely sturdy, and are subject to the elements, because life (as we certainly know) is sometimes that way.

But notice what we do next. We move into these fragile structures to study, to eat, and sometimes even to sleep!

As we re-enter the world after Yom Kippur, we do so with a recognition that life is so incredibly fragile. We do so with an understanding that no “shelter” can give us a 100% guaranteed protection from life’s dangers, challenges, and disappointments. We can take all of the “right precautions” and there are still risks involved (sound familiar?). This is not to say that we should be cavalier about protecting ourselves from life’s challenges; we should be smart and safe in life (wear your masks) – always choosing to protect human life that is so sacred. And yet, at the same time, each of us is being invited to recognize that there is an element of uncertainty in life as we go about “living” anyway. Yes, it’s true that we might build our Sukkah, have bad weather, and then have to come back inside. Sometimes, you make a plan and then have to have a contingency plan (sound familiar?). And yet – we build, we set the table, we make our meals, and we venture outside hoping for the best each year. And yet our tradition asks us to hold onto our “faith” – our faith in life, our faith in ourselves, our faith in our community, and our faith in God, and enter out into that Sukkah.

So this year, if possible, I want to encourage you to build a Sukkah at home and “dwell” in that space in celebration, in defiance, and in deep appreciation for all of the blessings that you still have despite COVID-19. Build a Sukkah and either dwell in it with your family, or with anyone who has been in your “pod” and with whom you can safely gather. If you are unable to build a Sukkah, but someone who you have been around safely over these past few months has one – bring your mask, sit six feet apart (inside or even outside and somehow safely “taking turns” in the Sukkah) and celebrate the gift of this often underappreciated holiday. If you have questions, I am happy to speak with you, or you can search online for Sukkah kits and a variety of practical suggestions.

We are living in challenging times. We are living in a world that is ever so fragile. And yet if we are blessed to still be here, then we should take time to celebrate that blessing. Build the Sukkah.

AS THE JEWISH HOLIDAYS APPROACH BRING US TO THE FINISH LINE OF OUR CAPITAL CAMPAIGN!

We're a few weeks away from the start of our Jewish Holidays and we're so close to our goal!

Our Capital Campaign pledges as of August 24, stand at $1,385,017 toward our overall goal of $1,500,000.

If you shared you would be making a pledge, NOW is the time!

If you've been thinking about joining in this exciting endeavor, NOW is the time!

If you are able to increase your pledge, NOW is the time!

If you are able to pay off more of your pledge by December 31, let us know your plans!

To everyone who has already supported OUR STORY. OUR TIME: THE CAMPAIGN FOR CONGREGATION TORAT EL, there are not enough words of gratitude for your meaningful support.

Our tradition teaches that we are each a link in the chain of our Jewish heritage. Just as others built for us, so too must we build for the future. This is our opportunity to embrace the privilege and obligation we have to renew our spiritual home for today and tomorrow.

- Make a pledge TODAY to The Campaign for Congregation Torat El. All of the information and a pledge form can be found online at www.torat-el.org/donate/capitalcampaign. You can also contact Pam Cardullo at 732-531-4410 or Rachel Port at reiink@verizon.net.
- Support the Campaign and Get a Tax Break – The CARES Act offers a generous new tax benefit to help you support The Campaign for Congregation Torat El. Here's what you need to know:
 - ◇ The CARES Act includes a new $300 'nonitemizer' tax deduction for 2020.
 - ◇ All eligible donations made in 2020 will go toward this deduction, up to $300 in total.
 - ◇ You are eligible for this deduction even if you do not itemize your taxes.
 - ◇ This means that when you donate to Congregation Torat El, you will be eligible to receive a tax break of up to $300 in addition to the standard deduction.
- Are You Over Age 70? If you are 70.5 or older and you have a Traditional IRA, you're eligible to make a tax-free donation to Congregation Torat El even if you don't itemize deductions on your return! It's called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) and it's a donation you make straight from your IRA.
- Participate by Naming A Pew
There are ONLY 6 SIDE PEWS and 15 CENTER PEWS REMAINING
Side pews ($10,000) or Center pews ($25,000) provide a special way to honor and/or memorialize family or friends with a personalized plaque on a pew in the Main Sanctuary. These gifts can be paid off over up to five years. Please reach out to Pam or Rachel with any questions.
- All Naming Opportunities
In addition to naming a pew, there are many naming opportunities still available. Consider this unique occasion as a beautiful way to leave a lasting memory of yourself, your family or a loved one. All naming opportunities are available online at www.torat-el.org/donate/capitalcampaign. Please reach out to Pam or Rachel with any questions.
- For Those Currently Making Pledge Payments, if you are able to pay more of your pledge by December 31, it would be a tremendous help as we work toward paying off as much of the remaining debt by December 2020. We have currently paid off more than 60% of our debt!
- Matching Gifts provide a wonderful way to double and sometimes even triple your gift to the Capital Campaign. Check with your employer to see if they have a matching gifts program. If they do, complete the appropriate paperwork and be sure to tell us so we credit your extra gift!

MAZEL TOV TO OUR BAT MITZVAH

Hi, my name is Zoe Lazar and I am looking forward to becoming a Bat Mitzvah. I am in 8th grade at Ocean Township Intermediate School. I enjoy playing travel soccer, going to the beach, baking, and hanging out with my friends and family. For my Bat Mitzvah project, I planned to volunteer with children with special needs. As a lot changed due to COVID-19 and I could not volunteer in-person, I decided to do something to help health care professionals. I worked with the Healing Headbands mission and sewed buttons on hundreds of headbands for health care workers to wear with their PPE. I sent headbands to hospitals across New Jersey and in Pennsylvania. I loved receiving messages stating that these headbands reduced headaches and sore ears and made our front line workers smile during challenging times! I look forward to continuing to find ways to make a difference in our community. My family and I are excited for my Bat Mitzvah on September 12th and hope to see you on Zoom!

SISTERHOOD CHAI LITES

Please think of sending Sisterhood Grams for your special occasions. The cards are beautiful and send a lovely warm message of "Mazel Tov" or in "memory of" to your family, friends or congregants. Beverle Richelson will promptly send out the greeting with her artistic flare. Please call Beverle at 908-675-5387. Grams are sent for a donation of $10. When you call Beverle she will give you current directions for sending in your check. Thank you for your support.

Please visit www.torat-el.org and click on the events tab. Registration required. Zoom link and password will be emailed.

Elul, a time for soul-searching as we look forward to the High Holy Days

During the month of Elul, time slots are available for our members to have short (15 minutes), private moments of reflection in our Main Sanctuary. These slots will be offered to one individual or one household unit at a time in order to make this a safe experience for all. We know that the changes to this year's High Holy Day season are unsettling for many and we hope this is one way our members can remain connected during these times.

Please call the office during regular business hours at 732-531-4410 to make your appointment now through September 11.

When you arrive for your appointment, we ask that you:

- Park near the Main/Sanctuary entrance and call the office to let us know you are here.
- Wear a mask at all times.
- As you enter the building, you will be asked some COVID-19 health-related questions and have your temperature checked.

Preparing Amidst A Pandemic: Spiritual Teachings For A New Year

It is certainly safe to say that this will be a Yamim Noraim like no other. How might we prepare ourselves -- emotionally, spiritually, and practically as we celebrate these High Holidays "together" this year? During these times of struggle, uncertainty, and anxiety, how can the spiritual wisdom of these Days of Awe lift us up by helping us return to our most cherished Jewish values, repair our troubled relationships, and remain grounded in our faith as we move forward into the unknown of 5781?

Zoom link can be found on our website torat-el.org. If you don't have the temple password please call the office.

If you are unable to log on to a computer you may dial in and participate via telephone by calling 1-929-205-6099 and putting in the Meeting ID 872 7340 0684.

Wednesdays, August 26, September 2, 9, 7:30pm

MAHZOR BOOK DISTRIBUTION

It is our pleasure to offer you the opportunity to borrow a Mahzor for High Holy Day services. Volunteers will be at the temple to offer curbside pickup of Mahzorim on the following dates and times:

Tuesday, September 8 ~ 10am-12pm and 5-7pm

Wednesday, September 9 ~ 10am-12pm and 5-7pm

Thursday, September 10 ~ 10am-12pm and 5-7pm

Apples and Honey

Apples and honey symbolize the sweetness of the New Year.
Send sweet greetings to your family and friends!

Order forms have already been mailed to your home.
$6.00 per member listing, for each apples and honey package

Rosh Hashanah 5781 begins September 18 at sundown.
Orders will be delivered the week of September 14.

All Paid Orders must be received by ~~September 1~~ with your check made payable to Congregation Torat El

CHALLAH & APPLE CAKE BAKE WITH JANE-RACHEL

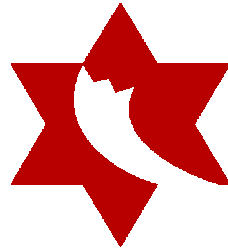

Join Jane-Rachel Schonbrun in learning two of her favorite recipes, homemade challah and a delicious apple cake!

Register on the temple website on the events page or call the temple office. Once registered you will receive instructions and an ingredient list.

Looking forward to baking with you!

Embrace
The High Holy Days
with Selihot

Saturday, September 12
8:30pm

Our Conservative Movement comes together to learn, sing, and connect as a community. Over 60 rabbis and cantors will present, and a variety of Selihot services will be offered throughout the evening. We will usher in the High Holy Day season focusing on Teshuva (Repentance: If I Am Not For Myself, Who Is For Me?), Tefilah (Prayer: And If I Am Only For Myself, What Am I?), and Tzedakah (Righteous Acts: And If Not Now, When?), along with the plea of Shema Koleinu (Hear our Voice, Accept our Prayer).

Zoom registration begins September 1. Visit rabbinicalassembly.org/story/selihot-night-live. Full schedules and zoom links will be provided by the Rabbinical Assembly to all who register.

Rosh Hashanah Seder & Service

We all know that there is a seder (or 2) associated with Passover! Some of us have heard of a seder associated with Tu'b'Shevat. But did you know that there was a seder associated with Rosh Hashanah? Originating in the Sefardic tradition, this seder revolves around eating symbolic foods and using those foods as the basis for prayers of hope for the coming year. (Like eating a banana and saying: "May this New Year be less bananas than the last!").

Zoom with us on the second night of Rosh Hashanah as we gather together to express our hopes for this New Year using food. A list will be in upcoming weekly emails with the foods that you may wish to have with you for the seder. You are encouraged to bring one food item to that symbolizes a hope that you have for this upcoming year.

We look forward to celebrating with you!

Zoom link can be found on our website, torat-el.org. Please call the temple office if you need the password.

MEET THE AUTHOR COMES TO ZOOM!

CONGREGATION TORAT EL

Wednesday, October 14, 7:30pm

Meet Ron Balson, author of The Girl from Berlin and Eli's Promise

The Girl from Berlin, Mr. Balson's fifth novel, is a vivid story of a young violinist whose talent enables her to survive World War II and a mysterious property dispute that threatens the ownership of her post-war haven, a villa in the Tuscan hills.

Eli's Promise, which will be published in September 2020, moves between Poland in 1939, a displaced person's camp in 1946, and Chicago in 1965. Both an historical novel and a mystery, it explores the human cost of war, the strength of family bonds, and the courage it takes to do what is right.

During the early 2000s, a complex lawsuit took attorney Ronald Balson to Warsaw, Zamosc and other Polish cities. He was profoundly moved by the scars and memorials of World War II which inspired him to write his first novel and international best seller Once We Were Brothers.

There is no charge for this event but registration is required.

Please register at www.torat-el.org/events

Your reservation confirmation email will include the Zoom link and password.

This ongoing series has been made possible by a generous grant from the B'nai Sholom/Beth El Foundation.

Congregation Torat El is pleased to present

Tovah Feldshuh

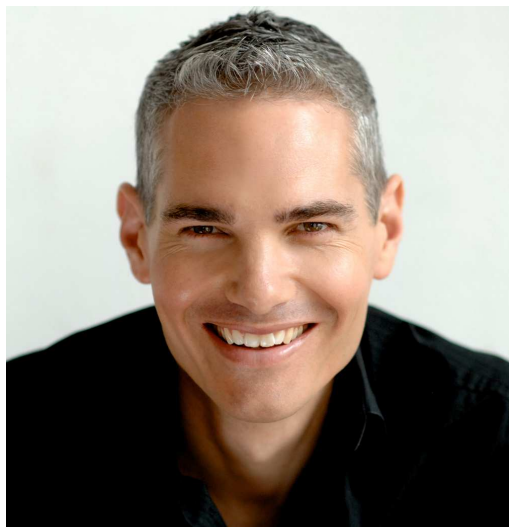

Up Close and Personal

November 7 ~ 8:00pm on Zoom

Spend an hour with this Broadway treasure as she talks about her 45-year career on The Great White Way.

Best known for her stunning portrayal of Golda Meir in Golda's Balcony on Broadway and her role as Rebecca's mother in Crazy Ex-Girlfriend, Tovah Feldshuh's career runs from Cyrano to Pippin, from Yentl to Irena's Vow, and includes Lend Me A Tenor, and more. Her performances have garnered her 6 Tony and Emmy nominations.
