The Campaign for Congregation Torat El

Success!

You brought us to our Campaign goal and beyond!

There is so much to celebrate -- and we will when we can gather together!

Dear Congregants and Friends of Congregation Torat El,

We are humbled by your spiritual and financial support of our first Capital Campaign, OUR STORY. OUR TIME: THE CAMPAIGN FOR CONGREGATION TORAT EL. There are not enough words of gratitude for your meaningful support.

WHAT HAS THIS CAMPAIGN ACHIEVED?

- Our synagogue debt will be eliminated in 2021, as Campaign pledges are paid. This was our number 1 priority and we are thrilled to see it realized. To date we have eliminated over $776,000 of debt, including eliminating the mortgage.
- We replaced our sanctuary roof.
- We relocated and created a beautiful new Patio/Sukkah.
- We are working on a lovely landscaped garden around the Patio/Sukkah.
- We will be making updates to our Social Hall, including new chairs.

WHO PARTICIPATED IN THIS AMAZING ACHIEVEMENT?

- 100% of our Executive Board and Board of Trustees.
- 24 Past Presidents, who served as Honorary Co-Chairs of the Campaign.
- 225 Congregants (families and individuals), our Men's Club, Sisterhood, Membership Committee, businesses and friends. Of this group, 164 pledges (73%) are paid in full.

Our success is truly a testament to all of you. Your generosity and heartfelt stories throughout this Campaign have left indelible marks on all of us. You have demonstrated the importance of our synagogue — in celebration and in sadness, and even during a pandemic. We all have reasons for needing this community and our synagogue — Congregation Torat El.

We will be unveiling a beautiful donor wall in the months ahead, to forever recognize all of you who joined in this incredible achievement.

There are moments in time when we are called upon to rise to the challenge. This was our moment. This is OUR STORY. This is OUR TIME.

With our sincere gratitude,

The Season Of Thanksgiving??

Shalom my friends. I hope that you and your family are safe and well and managing during these challenging times. By the time that you read these words, we will have completed our fall Jewish holiday season and be preparing ourselves for a Thanksgiving holiday minus many of the usual trimmings. From the way that we eat our Thanksgiving meals over shared screens, to virtually participating in Turkey Trots, watching zoom parades and football games minus the fans, not to mention significantly reduced, or non-existent, travel plans — this Thanksgiving will certainly be unique. And while that loss will be real, and challenging, it also presents us with an opportunity to focus on the spiritual practice behind this holiday — the cultivation of an attitude of gratitude. Because when we take away much of the secular rituals surrounding this holiday, we are left with the exercise of “giving thanks.”

Over the years I have written about the Jewish imperative to be grateful to God for the many gifts of our lives. I have written about the fact that the very name for “Jew” in Hebrew is taken from the tribe of “Yehudah,” from the root “ho’da’ah” meaning, “to express gratitude.” You know that as Jews, we are asked to recite at least 100 blessings a day in order to condition ourselves to be grateful for as many things as possible in any given day. But what about when things are really difficult? What about when we don’t feel like being grateful? Aren’t we allowed to be angry, sad, and frustrated — especially during times like this? The answer of course is: yes, but... Yes, we are entitled to be upset and frustrated, but we are also encouraged and challenged to notice the blessings in our lives each and every day.

The Talmud tells the story of a man named “Nahum Ish Gamzu,” who lived a difficult life, had a tragic and painful death, and yet still managed to spend his days trying to find something positive about his circumstances.

And why did they call him Nahum of Gam Zu? The reason is that with regard to any matter that occurred to him, he would say: This too is for the good [gam zu letova]. Once, the Jews wished to send a gift to the house of the emperor. They said: Who should go and present this gift? Let Nahum of Gam Zu go, as he is accustomed to miracles. They sent with him a chest full of jewels and pearls, and he went and spent the night in a certain inn. During the night, these residents of the inn arose and took all of the precious jewels and pearls from the chest, and filled it with earth. The next day, when he saw what had happened, Nahum of Gam Zu said: This too is for the good.

When he arrived there, at the ruler’s palace, they opened the chest and saw that it was filled with earth. The king wished to put all the Jewish emissaries to death. He said: The Jews are mocking me. Nahum of Gam Zu said: This too is for the good. Elijah the Prophet came and appeared before the ruler as one of his ministers. He said to the ruler: Perhaps this earth is from the earth of their father Abraham (and has miraculous powers)....

There was one province that the Romans were unable to conquer. They took some of this earth, tested it by throwing it at their enemies, and conquered that province. When the ruler saw that this earth indeed had miraculous powers, his servants entered his treasury and filled Nahum of Gam Zu’s chest with precious jewels and pearls and sent him off with great honor....
BT Taanit, 21a

I have always struggled with this piece of text because everything is not always “for the good,” and things do not always “work out.” “Miracles”(at least in the Hollywood sense) don’t always happen to us. And yet this year, the text is speaking to me differently. This year, I am noticing that it is Nachum’s words, his willingness to insist that there is “tova” to be found, even in the most challenging moments that is challenging me to keep searching for the good, even in these most difficult of circumstances.

As you gather around your Thanksgiving tables this year, I want to invite you to think about Nachum Ish Gam Zu as well. The sadness of the moment is clear to all — but the moments of thanksgiving can sometimes be elusive. In addition to the loss, what is “also for the good” for you this Thanksgiving? Come up with a list, share it around your tables, because as the story reminds us: our attitude is everything.

We're Still Here!

In this very difficult and unsettling time in which we are living, we are planning some interesting Zoom programs.

Our first program will be presented on Sunday, November 22 at 2pm.

We are very fortunate to have an author in our Temple family, Robert Cohen. Bob has written a historical novel, The Hills That Divide. Bob, in his own words, a senior citizen, said, "Oh what the hell! I'm not too old to write a book." Bob will describe the process he followed in writing his novel. He will also explain why he wrote a historical novel about immigrants coming to America. The Hills That Divide transports you to a time between 1848 and 1924 when America represented an escape from persecution, poverty, starvation and death for 30 million European immigrants.

Please visit upcomingevents.torat-el.org to register. Zoom Meeting ID: 816 6426 6741
Use our standard temple password. Please call the office if you don't have it.

Our Men's Club is happy and proud to announce the nominees for this year:

Man of the Year - Howard Lang

Youth of the Year - Paul, Hannah and Ethan Morris

Howard has been an active member of the Board of Trustees over the past 10 years. During the past 15 years, he chaired the synagogue's Technology Committee, developing and managing the synagogue's website, setting up back-office technology, and most recently deploying Livestream technology to support the congregation's first virtual High Holidays. Howard was also a member of the synagogue Financial Sustainability Committee to move from a "Dues" model to a "Sustaining" model.

As a Computer Scientist and Electrical Engineer, Howard conducts research at AT&T Laboratories to protect consumers from billions of fraudulent and scam Robocalls, and holds nine patents in communications technologies. Howard is a Professional Engineer licensed in five states, and volunteers as a mentor to undergraduate engineering students. He also enjoys doing magic, with over 1000 professional performances. Howard is humbled and honored to be recognized as CTE Men's Club Man of the Year.

Paul Morris

The youngest of the Morris triplets, Paul was born on April 13, 2004 at Jersey Shore University Medical Center. Ever since then, he's led an active life filled with sports and social events. From a young age Paul has been involved in Congregation Torat El and interacting with all members of the congregation. This has enabled him to master the skill of easily communicating with people of all ages and appreciating them for what they have to offer. Paul began his formal Jewish education going to Mini Minyan when he was 3 years old. He has also been attending CTE Hebrew School for 10 years and is involved in Hebrew High, and volunteers in helping with the younger grades. Additionally, he is a member of BBYO. Ever since his B'nai Mitzvah in 2017, Paul and his siblings have read Torah on multiple occasions and is continuing to do so.

Paul attends Ocean Township High School as a Junior. He is active on the school soccer and lacrosse teams. He plans to pursue his academic career at Brookdale College and to then transfer to a four-year university. Paul is truly honored to be nominated for the 2020 CTE Men's Club Youth of the Year.

Hannah Morris

Hannah Morris is an 11th grade student at Ocean Township High School. She plays varsity field hockey, runs track, and plays the flute in the school's Concert Band. Hannah has played field hockey for six years and plays on a club team. She is a student ambassador for the Shore Conference Athletes. Her hobbies include baking, gardening, going to the beach, and helping others.

Outside of school, she attends and volunteers at Congregation Torat El regularly. Hannah has been going to Temple since she was three years old, starting with Mini Minyan. She would go to Hebrew School every week and currently attends Hebrew High School. She is a teacher's assistant for 2nd and 3rd grade students at the Congregation Torat El's Hebrew School. Since Hannah's Bat Mitzvah in 2017, she has been active in Shabbat services by reading Torah and leading prayers.

In the summer of 2019, Hannah worked at Congregation Torat El's Early Learning Center, where she learned how to take care of babies and toddlers, and she enjoyed it tremendously. Hannah is sincerely humbled to be nominated for the 2020 CTE Men's Club Youth of the Year.

Ethan Morris

Ethan Morris is an 11th grade student at Ocean Township High School. He spends a lot of time with his friends and family and cherishes it greatly. He has a passion in the Performing Arts, specifically Music and Theater. He has achieved several leadership roles in the Ocean Township High School Marching Band and is hoping to spend his last year of high school as drum major. He has also been a part of the Drama Club receiving various roles as an actor, as well as achieving leadership positions in stage crew, such as the technical director. Ethan plans on continuing to excel in academics and is anticipating finishing in the top 15% in his class.

Ethan has attended Congregation Torat El services for as long as he can remember and has volunteered with CTE's Hebrew School the past four years. He demonstrates leadership amongst his peers regularly. Ethan is very grateful and honored to be one of the three recipients to the 2020 Men's Club Youth of the Year Award.

MEET THE AUTHOR SERIES

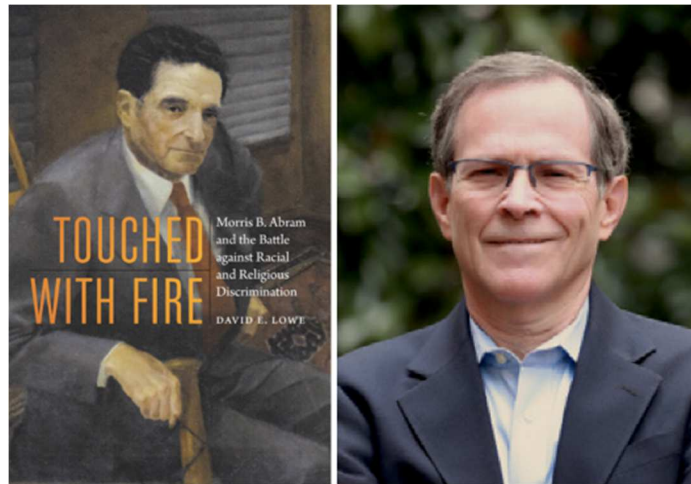

CONGREGATION TORAT EL

MEET THE AUTHOR COMES TO ZOOM!

Wednesday, December 9, 7:30pm

Meet David E. Lowe, author of Touched with Fire: Morris B. Abram and the Battle Against Racial and Religious Discrimination

Morris Abram was a man who, despite being very important to the Jewish community and the national fight for equality, was largely unknown. Raised in a rural Georgia town with only 12 Jewish families, he rose to become a courageous southern lawyer who played a major role, during the height of Jim Crow segregation, in unmasking the Ku Klux Klan, and in the Supreme Court's ground-breaking "one person, one vote" ruling. Working in the UN under three US presidents, he spoke out on behalf of Soviet Jews and was a strong defender of the State of Israel, as well as the youngest head of the American Jewish Congress.

Please join David E. Lowe as he describes the man whose work touched on some of the leading issues of our time: civil rights, anti-semitism, black-Jewish relations, affirmative action, and international human rights. Mr. Lowe was a Vice President of the bipartisan National Endowment for Democracy, a university professor, and consultant to UN Watch and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum. He was the winner of the 2019 National Jewish Book Award for Biography.

There is no charge for this event but registration is required.
Please register at upcomingevents.torat-el.org. Zoom link will be emailed.

This ongoing series has been made possible by a grant from the B'nai Sholom/Beth El Foundation.
