Congregation Torat El Watch Party Purim Eve Off Broadway

Megillah Reading and Purimshpiel brought to us by JTS
(Jewish Theological Seminary)

Thursday, February 25, 6:30-8:30pm

Put on a costume, grab your grogger, and be prepared to laugh, make some noise, and sing along! The annual JTS, sold-out Purim Eve off Broadway will stream nationwide for the first time. Visit upcomingevents.torat-el.org to register!!

Purim Eve off Broadway will be a side-splitting, "grown-up" celebration. In addition to Ma'ariv and a full Megillah reading, there will be a multi-media, musical shpiel integrated throughout. Featuring satirical songs set to familiar Broadway tunes.

Congregation Torat El will be hosting a watch party. You will log on to Zoom and Rabbi Schonbrun will share his screen so our community can all be together to enjoy a wonderful night together. Please note this will be the only Megillah reading for the evening and this program will take the place of our regular weeknight Minyan service.

Traditional Megillah Reading

Friday, February 26, 8:00am at morning minyan

When The World Turns Upside Down

In just a few weeks we will be celebrating the festival of Purim. Normally a time of joyous laughter and a celebration of the power of good (Esther) over evil (Haman), Purim is usually filled with costume parties, Hamantaschen baking, Megillah reading, and laughter. But Purim is more than simply a fun Jewish holiday. It is also a time when we take a moment to realize just how easy it is for things to turn completely upside down. It is a time when we remember what it is like when a world, or a community, is turned on its head; when life as we know it becomes completely topsy-turvy.

V'nahafokh hu is the Jewish term used to describe this phenomenon. Literally it means "and it was reversed/flipped." One moment, proclaims the Megillah, the Jews of Persia were fine. The next moment, a drunken misogynist king Ahashverosh, and his madman henchman Haman were planning to kill all of the Jews. Fortunately, in marches Esther (thanks to some inspiration from her uncle/cousin Mordechai) v'nahafokh hu, and the tables are turned again.

And in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's command and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over those who hated them. Esther 9:1

Purim is a reminder of just how upside down things can get sometimes. I remember Purim last year very well. There was this virus that was starting to make many of us nervous. Some synagogues cancelled carnivals. Others, like us, decided to take certain precautions but just wait and see. That was before (if we can even remember such a time) masks, six feet and social distancing were an essential part of daily living, flowing off the tip of our tongue multiple times each day. Last year, our Torat El Megillah readings were quick, the festivities were toned down, the kids who showed up were wearing masks of an entirely different kind – and a few days later, just like that, the world was flipped upside down. This virtual Purim will complete the one-year Congregation Torat El cycle of Jewish festivals celebrated in a COVID-19 world. Who would have ever imagined?

But as we approach this milestone it occurs to me that this lesson of v'nahafokh hu, is one we would do well to internalize. Things can change in an instant. We can be healthy one minute, and sick the next. We can be enjoying our loved ones one minute, and saying good bye to them in ways that are unimaginable the next. We can make one wrong move, or no wrong moves, and get or spread COVID-19 all too quickly.

Life is so precious and so fragile. V'nahafokh hu – and it can be turned upside down in an instant, in the best of ways or the worst of ways.

The question for us this Purim is this: how has knowing that changed us?

How has our recognition that our circumstances can change in an instant, that we only have so much control in our lives, and that life is so very fragile – changed the way that we behave? How has it informed the choices that we make each day? How has it affected who we prioritize in our lives, who we spend time with on Zoom, on the phone, or in person with our masks? How has the lightning speed in which things can change informed our priorities and the ways that we live our daily lives?

These are questions that I invite you to consider this Purim as we look forward to a time when our fortunes have turned again, this virus is behind us, and things can flip over to some new version of "normal" in the year to come.

I wish you all a Hag Purim Sameach. May you each find some happiness as Purim approaches. And the next time that you put on a mask, for Purim or for COVID, remember that each type of mask is a reminder of the preciousness and joy of being alive.

V'nahafokh hu – because things can change in an instant.

Community Food Drive organized by Leora and Gavi Schonbrun

As we are preparing to become B'nai Mitzvah in March, we wanted to do something to help people in our community, especially those whose lives have become much harder during the COVID-19 pandemic. Even though many people in New Jersey have been dealing with hunger, the pandemic has made things much worse. According to the Community Food Bank of New Jersey, the food insecurity rate has increased 55% since COVID-19. Before COVID-19, 8.7% of New Jersey residents were food insecure, and now 13.5% are projected to be food insecure. This means, more than 1.2 million people in New Jersey face hunger every day. Nearly 400,000 of them are children.

We are organizing a community food drive for Fulfill, the main food bank serving Monmouth and Ocean counties. Each year, Fulfill provides food and other resources for over 136,000 of our neighbors who are food insecure. And they have, of course, been busier than ever during COVID. This drive is perfect for the holiday of Purim when one of the mitzvot is to give to the poor.

You can help in two ways:

Bring donations of non-perishable food to Torat El on the following collection days and times when we will be collecting outside of the temple's front door:

Thursday, February 25 (Erev Purim) - 4:00-6:00pm

Sunday, February 28 - 9:00-11:00am

Make a donation to Fulfill (www.fulfillnj.org/donate). For every dollar collected, Fulfill can provide three meals. Please indicate that your donation is "In Honor of Gavi & Leora Schonbrun" so we can thank you for your gift!

Thank you so much for your help and support!!

Gavi and Leora

Meet The Author

CONGREGATION TORAT EL

MEET THE AUTHOR COMES TO ZOOM!

Thursday, March 18, 7:30pm

Meet Max Gross, author of *The Lost Shtetl

2020 National
Jewish Book Award Winner

Kreskol is the setting for The Lost Shtetl, a wise and funny novel, which has been compared to Brigadoon and the writing of Isaac Bashevas Singer. The Polish hamlet was forgotten by the Nazis during WWII, sparing its residents the horrors of the Holocaust. When the story begins, Kreskol has been thrust into the present, and the chaos that ensues allows the author to tell a story about history, prejudice, and the persistence of anti-Semitism.

Max Gross is a staff reporter for the New York Post and also writes a column for the Forward called "The Hapless Jewish Writer." The Lost Shtetl is his debut novel.

There is no charge for Meet the Author events but registration is required.

Please visit upcomingevents.torat-el.org

You will receive an email which will include the Zoom link and password prior to the event.

A CONVERSATION WITH AUTHORS NATAN SHARANSKY AND GIL TROY

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14

1:00PM
Zoom

Congregation Torat El, in partnership with Congregation B'nai Israel of Toms River, Congregation B'nai Israel of Rumson and Temple Emanu-El of Haverhill, MA, present: A Conversation with Natan Sharansky and Gil Troy, authors of Never Alone; Prison, Politics and My People.

Never Alone is a classic account of courage, integrity and belonging. In 1977, Natan Sharansky, a leading activist for the democratic dissident movement in the Soviet Union and the movement for free Jewish emigration, was arrested. He spent nine years as a political prisoner, convicted of treason against the state. In Never Alone, Sharansky and historian Gil Troy show how Sharansky's years in prison, many spent in harsh solitary confinement, prepared him for his public life, bringing extraordinary moral clarity and uncompromising honesty to his work as an Israeli politician and the head of the Jewish Agency. Never one who placed expediency ahead of consistent values, Sharansky was an often awkward political colleague but always visionary as to where the real threats to freedom lay. Never Alone reflects on his time as a political prisoner, from his seat at the table as history unfolded in Israel and the Middle East, and his passionate efforts to unite the Jewish people. Written with frankness, affection, and humor, the book offers us profound insights from a man whose fight for individual freedom in the face of overt tyranny would come to define the rest of his life.

Natan Sharansky is an Israeli politician, human rights activist and author. He served as Chairman of the Executive of the Jewish Agency from June 2009 to August 2018.

Gil Troy is the award-winning author of The Age of Clinton: America in the 1990s, which will be published this October by Thomas Dunne Books of St. Martin's Press. A Professor of History at McGill University since 1990, he is a leading presidential historian, writing about the history of American presidential elections, the importance of moderation in American democracy, and Daniel Patrick Moynihan's fight as US Ambassador to the UN against the infamous Zionism is Racism resolution.

Please note this program is not part of our Meet the Author series.

Register at upcomingevents.torat-el.org and you will receive an email confirmation with Zoom link.
