YOU CAN ALWAYS RETURN

I will never forget my first Ritual Committee meeting. I was the USY representative to the committee (anyone surprised?) and the first topic of discussion was the switching of prayer books from the old black Silverman siddur, to a newer publication. One man, who I took to be 100 years old at the time (but was probably in his 60's), stood up, grasping the Silverman in his hands and exclaimed loudly: "This siddur was good enough for my father, it was good enough for my grandfather, and it is good enough for me!" It was in that moment that I realized change is not always so easy, even if it is sometimes necessary. I was 14 years old.

It is with this story in mind that I want to remind you of the exciting change that will be coming to our High Holiday tefilah (prayer) experience this year — the changing of our mahzorim. If you look at the New Mahzor, as they were titled, that we have been using since the beginning of Congregation Torat El, you will see that the copyright date of the book is nearly as old as me! Compiled in the 1970's as an attempt to bring a fresh, contemporary feel to the liturgy, our previous mahzorim unfortunately no longer met the needs of its users, nor did it allow for the spiritual nourishment and depth, which the liturgy and ritual of these holidays are meant to encourage. Fortunately, our new Mahzor, the Mahzor Lev Shalem is set up to do just that.

You see, the Lev Shalem is designed to take into account the perspective of both the participant and the prayer leader. Complete with translations in contemporary, clear language, commentary providing historical context, more transliteration, as well as over 300 kavanot (comments and poetry to help us spiritually focus), this prayer book is a remarkable accomplishment. In a similar style to the red Siddur Lev Shalem that we use each Shabbat, it is in many senses both traditional and innovative at the same time — offering the richness of traditional prayer, coupled with innovation, poetry, and prayer readings for a variety of different occasions. It is refreshingly relevant, inspirational, and filled with spiritual depth. I am confident that in using this High Holiday Mahzor, our individual and collective experience will be both enriched and transformed.

As you hopefully know by now, there are opportunities to dedicate these new mahzorim in someone's honor. With only a few weeks until the holiday, I hope that you will consider doing this as a way to remember a loved one, creating a tangible symbol that will keep their memory with you during these most sacred days. Please look at this bulletin for more information, or call the office to make your donation.

But even more importantly, as we prepare to inaugurate this mahzor this year, I hope that you will take time during services to sit carefully with this spiritual tool and use it as such. I know that prayer can be challenging — between Hebrew, theological struggles, the density that is a traditional prayer service, and the amount of time we are asked to gather — services are not always so easy. This year, give yourself permission to approach this spiritual experience with curiosity, patience, and an open heart, and permission to not be a slave to the text. Approach the mahzor specifically, and the prayer experience more generally, as it was intended to be in the first place — an experience through words written as poetry meant to inspire, and not a script meant to be followed blindly. This year, use our new mahzor to find a phrase, an explanation, a translation, an insight that will inspire you to dwell on its meaning in your life for just a few moments. Allow yourself to get lost in the rhythm of the prayer, the sounds of the room, the insight or connection on a given page at any given moment in the service. My hope is that by approaching your prayer experience in this way, you will indeed walk away from your High Holidays with a Lev Shalem, a complete and full heart.

Wishing you and your families a Shanah Tovah U'metukah, a happy, healthy and sweet New Year!

2022-2023 Adult Education Schedule

My People's Torah

Building relationships and creating connections with one another is a central part of our sacred work at Congregation Torat El. Our monthly My People's Torah program seeks to help us build on existing relationships and creating new ones as we hear different perspectives on Judaism and share in each other's personal life stories. Come and join us as we learn from one another while fostering closer relationships among our synagogue family.

Second Shabbat of each month following services unless there is a Bar or Bat Mitzvah.

Lunch & Learn: Torah Wisdom For Our Time

Our modern-day society is filled with social, political, and economic challenges that can sometimes feel overwhelming and impossible to handle. What does Judaism have to say about these issues and how can the wisdom of our tradition help us as we navigate the complexities of the day?

Come and join Rabbi Schonbrun each week as we delve into the wisdom of the weekly portion as it relates to social justice issues and the critical questions of the day. Studying from a book entitled The Social Justice Torah Commentary, we will explore the wisdom of rabbis across the denominational spectrum and across the country.

Lunch & Learn returns to in-person classes!

Wednesdays, 12:00pm beginning October 26

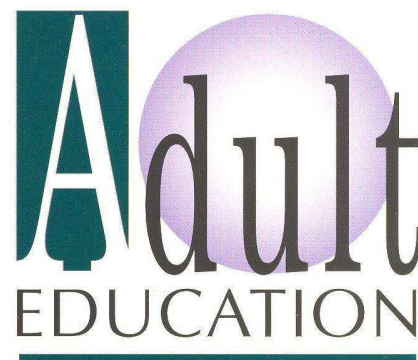

Hassidic Wisdom for Today

For the past two and a half years, Rabbi Schonbrun has joined with colleagues around the country through the Institute for Jewish Spirituality, exploring the ancient wisdom of classic Hassidic sources, and their relevance in helping us live lives that are more mindful and intentional. While our understanding of Hassidic tradition often comes from our interactions with Chabad, our TV habits (shows such as Shtisel), or other preconceived notions of the ultra-orthodox world, the original texts of the Hassidic world have much wisdom to offer us in our modern lives. Come and join Rabbi Schonbrun as he shares some of his favorite Hassidic texts with you.

This evening class will be held in person.

Wednesdays, October 19, 26, November 9, 16, 7:30pm

2022-2023 Adult Education Schedule

Judaism's Big Ideas

Throughout its development, Judaism has introduced significant concepts and ideas that have had an outsized influence on society. This class will offer the opportunity to explore some of these big ideas and the role that they might play in our personal lives and our world outlook. Reading through Judaism's 10 Best Ideas, A Brief Guide for Seekers, written by Rabbi Arthur Green, we will explore the richness of some of Judaism's most central ideas and their relevance for our daily lives.

This class will be held on Zoom only.

Wednesdays, January 4 - March 8, 7:30pm

Praying with Intention

"Services are too long Rabbi." "These prayers are all the same Rabbi." "I don't believe in God anyway, and certainly don't think that God needs my prayers Rabbi." "There is too much Hebrew and we go too fast Rabbi." If you have ever felt any of these things, if you struggle with incorporating prayer into your daily life, or if you are curious to learn more about traditional prayer and the meaning behind some of our oldest liturgical poetry, then this class is for you! Come and join us as we explore a new book just released by Rabbi Leonard Felder, entitled How These Words Can Raise Up Your Energy, and explore the deeper personal meaning that we might discover from some of our key Jewish tefilot, prayers.

This class will be held in person.

Wednesdays, April 19 - May 24, 7:30pm

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Fellow Congregants,

There are many reasons to be a member of a Synagogue, but this letter will only address one – having a place to go for reciting Kaddish for a yahrzeit.

At Torat El we are fortunate to have a cadre of people, a group of only 10 people composing a minyan, who gather every morning and evening to provide a service to our community, which enables our members to recite Kaddish. I am not one of those, but I do try to attend once a week to participate in the Morning Service that starts at 8am. Unfortunately, due to vacations and sickness, as well as myriad other reasons, the regulars are not always able to attend.

On Mondays and Thursdays, the Morning Service includes Torah reading, which makes the Service about an hour long. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays, the Service is about a half hour. The Evening Service, Mondays through Thursdays is at 7pm (on Zoom) and normally takes about a half hour. Sunday Morning Service is at 8:30am.

If you do recite Kaddish, come on another occasion or occasions in order to help make a minyan for others.

Respectfully and sincerely,

Marvin Goldin

The Mitzvah of Geniza: A Unique Opportunity

The practice of geniza, literally meaning “hidden” or “concealed,” refers to the burial of sacred books when they are no longer usable. Originally this practice was connected to books containing God’s name such as damaged sifrei Torah and prayer books, but eventually it also came to include sacred ritual objects (unusable talitot, tefillin, etc.). Although books and certain ritual objects are clearly not as valuable as human beings, this practice of burial was enacted as a reminder that we are to set aside these sacred objects in the same way that we treated them when they were being used — with consciousness and intention.

Over the past few years, our congregation has amassed quite a significant collection of books and ritual items that are in need of burial.

We invite you to join us at 11am on September 11 at Beth El Cemetery in Neptune as we take this opportunity to fulfil this unique mitzvah.

MEET THE AUTHOR SERIES RETURNS TO IN-PERSON EVENTS!!

CONGREGATION TORAT EL
301 MONMOUTH ROAD, OAKHURST, NJ

Sunday, October 30, 11:00am

Meet Susan Leicher, author of Acts of Atonement

Acts of Atonement is the second book in the tale of Serach Gottesman – headstrong daughter in an Orthodox Jewish family, and Paloma Rodriguez – ambitious daughter of an unsupportive Catholic Latina mother. Against all odds, their relationship has lasted ten years until an unexpected death and experience with the criminal court system test their courage and fidelity. Their personal story plays out against an array of broader social issues involving the way traditional religions and cultures treat those who don't follow their rules, whether Judaism has its own form of Latino machismo, and what happens when atoning for betrayal affects those we love.

S.W. Leicher grew up in the Bronx in a Latina and Jewish family. After graduate school she raised her family on the Upper West Side of Manhattan and writes about social justice issues for nonprofit organizations. A portion of royalties for the book will be donated to the New York Women's Foundation's IGNITE! Program which supports diverse, young, hard-working women.

Buy your copy of her book from Bookshop.org (to support independent bookstores) or amazon.com (remember to use your Amazon Smile account if you have one that supports your local congregation).

Pre-Paid $15 per person/$20 at the door
A light brunch will be served
Reservations at www.torat-el.org or 732-531-4410

This ongoing series has been made possible by a grant from the B'nai Sholom/Beth El Foundation.
